Garrison Witness Asks More Cash

(Special to the States-Item)

TACOMA, Wash. — A witness sought by District Attorney Jim Garrison in his probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy says he needs more [illegible] money if he is to come to New Orleans to testify [illegible]

[illegible] said [illegible] and [illegible] to New Orleans and appear before the Grand Jury Nov. 21 [illegible]

[illegible] Thomas Edward Beckham, who testified before the grand jury in the case.

Garrison contends the Kennedy assassination was the result of a New Orleans-based plot and has charged two persons — [illegible] — with conspiracy in the case.
