Removal of Clay Shaw Trial Judge Is Urged

NEW ORLEANS—A commission on the Louisiana judiciary today recommended that Edward A. Haggerty Jr., presiding judge in the Kennedy assassination conspiracy trial of Clay Shaw, be removed from the bench.

The immediate cause of Judge Haggerty's troubles was a stag party (the commission called it "an assemblage "for indecent purposes") at a motel not far from the criminal court building on Dec. 17, 1969. When police broke up the party the Judge battled four officers as television cameras captured the action.

But the commission report probed much deeper into Judge Haggerty's conduct, noting that he associated with and placed bets through a known bookie by the name of Victor Manuel Soto, and that he had a close association with motel owner Frank Occhipinti, who has an admitted business relationship with Carlos Marcello, reputed Mafia leader for the New Orleans area.

Weatherman

NEW YORK—Two minutes after a telephoned warning, a dynamite time bomb exploded in a men's room of city police headquarters Tuesday night, smashing doors, windows and walls and slightly injuring eight people.

In the mail yesterday, The Associated Press received a hand-printed communication signed "Weatherman," which claimed that radical student faction planted the bomb because "the pigs in this country are our enemies."

The blast was the latest in a series that have caused four deaths and rocked skyscrapers, Army centers and department stores in New York.

Addenda

Negro Mayor Charles Evers of Fayette accussed the Mississippi Highway Department of discriminating against the city by removing "Welcome" signs showing a black hand shaking a white hand. The highway commission replied that the signs were illegally placed.

The FBI announced that William C. Sullivan has been named assistant to Director J. Edgar Hoover to succeed Cartha D. DeLoach, who has retired. Sullivan has been with the FBI since 1941.
