America First Member Quits, Says Situation Calls for Unity

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Edward made public. L. Ryerson, member of America In his lette L. Ryerson, member of America

First Committee, today resigned from the organization, due to the emergency which, he said, may see America at war "at any moment."

In a letter to Gen Bobert "

In a letter Ryerson said:

"In his letter, Ryerson said:

"I have always deplored the state of our national affairs wherein the greatest democracy of the world has been slowly but surely guided by our National Residual to the state of our national affairs wherein the greatest democracy of the world has been slowly but surely guided by our National to the state of our national affairs wherein the greatest democracy of the world has been slowly but surely guided by our National to the state of our national affairs wherein the greatest democracy of the world has been slowly but surely guided by our National to the state of our national to the state of our national affairs wherein the greatest democracy of the world has been slowly but surely guided by our National to the state of our national to the s

First Committee, Ryerson, a prominent Chicago manufacturer, said America faces a situation that demands national unity whether the country is at peace or at war and that the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation in the table transfer of the reason he was resigning attomation to determine upon a national policy.

"It is, however, apparent that we have been brought face to face with a new resigning attomation in the reason he was resigning attomation at the reason he was resigning at th

America at war "at any moment."

In a letter to Gen. Robert E. Wood, chairman of the America ation that has not permitted the First Committee. Ryerson. a prominent of the America ation that has not permitted the process of the committee that the committee that has not permitted the committee that has not permitted the committee that has not permitted the committee that the committee that has not permitted the committee that has not permitted the committee that the committee that has not permitted the committee that the c for that reason he was resigning. active participation in war at any At national headquarters it was moment. To deal successfully stated "several other members of with such a situation demands, the national committee had also above all else, unified action by resigned." Their names were not all of our people."