Services Held For Coroner Nicholas Chetta

DR. NICHOLAS CHETTA

Funeral services were held today for Dr. Nicholas J. Chetta, New Orleans coroner, who died Saturday at Mercy Hospital at the age of 50.

The Rev. M. V. Jarreau, S.J., celebrated a Requiem Mass at St. Pius X Church, 6666 Spanish Fort blvd. The House of Bultman, 338 St. Charles, was in charge of funeral arrangements. There will be private funeral services at Hope Mausoleum.

DR. CHETTA recently was elected president of the Louisiana Medical Society.

Active pallbearers were Jules E., Alvin J., Sidney J., Alfred J. and Henry M. Delaune, and Angelo Palmisano.

Honorary pallbearers were Gov. John J. McKeithen, Mayor Victor H. Schiro, Police Supt. Joseph I. Giarrusso, Dr. Ignacio Medina Jr., Dr. Floyd F. LoCascio, Dr. S. K. Kepner, Dr. Louis A. Monte, Dr. John E. Garcia, Dr. W. E. Kittredge, Dr. James L. Garcia-Oller, Dr. Ashton Thomas, Dr. Christopher F. Bellone, James F. Quade, Herman C. Steger and members of the executive boards of the Bank of Louisiana and the First Homestead and Savings Association.

Schiro issued a statement lauding Chetta's work:

"Dr. Chetta's 18 years of service as coroner of Orleans Parish was distinguished by his integrity, ability and dedication. The community has lost a fine public official, who commanded the friendship, respect and admiration of all who knew him."
