SANTA BARBARA, [illegible] (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren was hanged in effigy Wednesday at a downtown intersection, authorities reported today.

They said they did not know who was responsible.

The life-size dummy and a placard sign were found on a flagpole.

Sheriff's deputies said the sign read:

"Chief Warren, [illegible] can, head of Oswald [illegible] wash committee, is being the [illegible] to the [illegible] anti-Christ in the [illegible]"

A [illegible] carried out the [illegible] Power.

[illegible] committee [illegible] President [illegible] to investigate the [illegible] of President John F. Kennedy and the murder of his accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

VOL XCIII SAT., DEC. [illegible], 1963 . NO. [illegible]

Please note the wording of the sign. Streicher's Nazi publication "Der Stürmer" used the identical language when the press expressed doubts as to the guilt of Marinus van der Lubbe.
