Panorama 8/28/74 Shapiro, Sachs, Steven Schulman
Shapiro - no prosecution to "bring us together" Sachs - up to Jaworski with only one factor that "Nixon was President" which he thinks "does not mean that ~~he~~ he (Nixon) should not be prosecuted
"If he weren't prosecuted it might be more divisive".
Steve Schulman, Krogh's lawyer "reconciliation might be better achieved by Mr. N's not having immunity."
Shapiro tries to make severe punishment
required of blue ~~the~~ collar crime necessary, more than white collar.
