

Lawyer in Roosevelt

Libel Declared Sane

T-4 7/4/45
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 3.

Two psychiatrists reported today to Judge Vincent Brogna that Edward H. James, Concord lawyer and author, who was indicted last April on charges of criminally libeling President Roosevelt, is sane. Judge Brogna then denied a motion by Attorney-General Robert T. Bushnell which sought to have James committed to a State hospital for observation.
