Dear Sir:

As I am convinced that every American should have a strong feeling toward the greatness of America, I have given my contribution in publishing "What about America?" of which I have the pleasure of sending you a copy.

It is a work which although modestly limited, still it conveys my sincere feelings. The thesis is "The true friends of America are the Americans - and to the Americans the best friend will be a - strong America."

I hope that you will find my work good enough to merit your approval.

Sincerely yours,

VICTOR A. DI MEZZA
