American League for a Free Palestine

I think that the formation of the Hebrew Committee of National Libration is one of the most wholesome signs that has yet appeared on the horizon of post-war solutions of age-old problems. I believe its claims are just, its philosophy sound. It is the sensible, rational answer both to the Palestine problem and the problems of anti-semitism. Peter H. Bergson, with whom I have worked for a long time, is a man of unquestioned integrity, tireless energy and dynamic leadership. It is men of this type who will, I hope, be leading figures in the post-war world. The American League for a Free Palestine is formed in the finest tradition of all national descent and creed will give it their wholehearted support.

WILL ROGERS, JR.
