The Third Council

Roosevelt's Red Racket

The Third Council

IN this third Safety Council, equipping you for adept Silver Legion membership, it is necessary to discuss clearly and definitely just why the Silvershirts have been bitter antagonists of the prevailing political administration, why Chief Pelley has never passed up an opportunity to attack Franklin D. Roosevelt, and what the policy of the Legion is toward the brand of corrupted Constitutionalism that must be cleaned from Federal affairs before the Silvershirts can be officially disbanded. In other words, the enlightened and accomplished Silvershirt must know what his Legion's political policy is. He must see wherein this political policy differs from those of old-line political parties, or from the political policy of the average patriotic organization. He must know what objectives are being advanced in case the Silvershirts of a given locality find it to their advantage to back a political candidate not their own, and whether or not it is in line with the organization's principles to engage in certain political contests regardless of whether the Christian Party or the Christian-Commonwealth program is involved.

Furthermore, does the Silver Legion propose to attain to its objectives by strictly political means or by some form of direct vigilante action?

These questions having to do with Politics must be based on what Silver Legion leaders know is being promoted behind the scenes at the nation's Capital. They must be answered in the light of knowledge as to exactly what Roosevelt's role is, that he has played so consistently from the first.

Yet the Legion's policy as to politics must be of such a nature that supporters of the New Deal cannot say that in criticizing Roosevelt or the New Deal it is merely pulling chestnuts from the fire for Republicans or any other group of jobless politicians.

The first point that we want to take up, therefore, is: What really is Mr. Roosevelt and his Party intent on doing?

Second, what will be the certain result if permitted to continue?

Third, how might the Silvershirts as an organization mess up the whole of it and substitute a system of greater integrity and worth?

We will begin with the first question: What really is Mr. Roosevelt and his Party intent on doing?

IT SHOULD be fairly clear, Chief Pelley thinks, that if you councillors have given careful reading to the pamphlets and books known as the Four Primers, you should be aware that Roosevelt himself does not have any political Party whatever behind him—strictly speaking—in the role he is playing.

¶ Some of you, thinking this strange, may exclaim: "What about the Democratic Party?"

The heads of the Legion have to reply: "The Democratic Party, as a party has never been the true motivating factor behind Mr. Roosevelt. The great chieftains of the Democratic Party never came together, worked out the provisions of what has since been called the New Deal, offered them as planks in a platform opposed to the Republicans, and then selected Mr. Roosevelt as standard-bearer for those principles. And before the advent of Mr. Roosevelt, this was always the political procedure.

“What the clique behind Mr. Roosevelt did—and it was by no means the Democratic Party clique—was put up a candidate to oppose Mr. Hoover. This candidate was elected on the strength of the Hoover-Republican opposition in this country. Thereupon this candidate, and the clique behind, proceeded to ‘steal’ the Democratic Party, with all its established machinery of organization and its hundred-year-old traditions, and give it its ‘principles’ after that candidate took office. Those ‘principles,’ professing to be Democratic, actually were something else.

“Mr. Roosevelt therefore never had a Party, in the strict sense of the word, behind him. He had a clique. It has been this clique that has used the machinery and traditions of the Democratic Party to get its work done and advance its secret program. Mr. Roosevelt has been the nominal figurehead of the Democratic Party, it is true, but that was only a sop to its traditions. Truly, Mr. Roosevelt might better be termed the big-shot stooge for the clique, by and through which it controls such aspects of the Party as it can, with himself as figurehead.

THOUSANDS of ignorant, duped, or bribed people think that when the President writes a speech to Congress, or goes on the Air for one of his Fireside Chats, that what he says has been written by himself, that the said speech or fireside chat is the summary of his personal opinions and attitude upon the subject, and that in thus defining his policies he is asserting the leadership reposing in himself as Chief Executive. ¶ The heads of the Silver Legion are utterly cynical that any such things happen. The heads of the Legion are utterly cynical that Mr. Roosevelt knows from month to month, or from week to week, or from day to day, what he is going to say to Congress or over the Air at all—till he has his message or fireside chat handed to him for delivery! There has been much ribald laughter in Washington from time to time, over instances where so many of these speeches prepared by the clique were handed him at the same time, that he got them mixed and read the wrong manuscript to the wrong audiences.

Imagine a man's reading an entire manuscript to an audience and not discovering till afterwards that it was wrong—if he had composed it himself!

Despite his accomplished vocal delivery, which still charms thousands of deceived people all over the country, the Silvershirts take the position that the man is merely a great political actor. He is parroting the stuff that the clique wants him to parrot. By putting the message from the clique into his mouth, the clique gets the country to believe that it is the august and sacrosanct voice of the President of the United States declaring what should or shouldn't be done for the good of the country.

That is precisely why he was given the role!

¶ Anyone who has had an experience with the theater, knows that there is such a thing as a celebrated actor having a lot of exceptionally fine plays written for him. They are distinguished by wonderful conversation and brilliant repartee. Gradually, over a long period of time, such actor acquires the notion that the playwright doesn't really count for much, that the lines are his own, and that he should get all the credit for them so long as he speaks them, regardless of who wrote them.

That, from the first seems to have been the weakness of the man who was utilized to steal and subvert the Democratic Party after the eclipse of Herbert Hoover. Now it is reported that he flies into childish rage if anyone around him dares to insinuate that everything he says and does may not originate with him as it has honestly originated with other men who have occupied his exalted position.

This sort of behavior is not the mark of a big-bore man, capable of ironing out the complications of a mighty nation. It is the behavior of a vain, incompetent play-actor who feels his disadvantage and seeks to "cover up," knowing that the same men who have "made" him may as easily "ditch" him if he fails to show further usefulness.

Therefore, say the Silvershirts, such a character, thrust into such a role, is pursuing from day to day a sort of personal Racket. He coppers all the adulation from such a part and feeds his vanity on it. He doesn't incorporate in himself and his expressions the great and lofty aspects of his office, as did Abraham Lincoln. His seemingly great and lofty expressions are merely the manufactured honey-drips that the clique puts in his mouth for doping the public.

In other words, he is letting himself in for the role of the Big Stuffed Shirt who takes the bows and dodges the brickbats. And all the time the "boys in the backroom" are running the nation after their own designs, and accomplishing their ends with minimum publicity and obstruction.

THE SILVERSHIRTS cannot talk about the "politics" of this Administration, therefore, because in the traditional sense what is passing for its politics is merely smokescreen, eye-dust, and camouflage, to fool the citizenry into following the mirage of a Prosperity that has to be "primed" like a pump every little while or it fizzles and collapses.

The clique itself, as well, is not a political clique, either. It is not, strictly speaking, a Money Clique, as it happened to be in the Harding Administration. As you have heard before in this Silver Legion instruction, it is a racial clique—and a particularly mischievous racial clique in that it is not even of American-soil in its origin, nor in its jurisdiction.

It is a clique that originates abroad, and operates from abroad! But so smoothly and secretly does it do its work that only those who are "wise" from long and honest investigation of it, are aware that it exists and operates at all.

Imagine what an uproar would go up from this nation if the Tokyo government contrived to ship over here nearly 400 leading Japanese and got them appointed to all the most vital offices in our government, so that no matter what Department you entered in Washington, you discovered it filled with Nipponese Orientals. In addition, suppose that Tokyo sent these 400 Japanese officials or agents their day-by-day orders as to how they should conduct this American government, and that the country beneath such supervision should be systematically depleted in resources so that native Aryan Americans would be finally ruined and Tokyo annex it to Japan. How long do you think a President would last who was responsible for such appointments, and who acted as the biggest stooge of all for the Mikado?

Yet that is precisely what is happening, only with a different Oriental race than the Nipponese—the Jewish! Of course they don't leave papers and incriminating documents around, so that anybody can pick them up and go into court on a conspiracy suit, defeating them on the strength of it.

We have to arrive at our evidence of it by watching it transpire!

If 400 Japanese came over to Washington, stole the Republican Party, filled the federal government with Nipponese, and those Nipponese brazenly bragged that they were taking their orders from Tokyo, wouldn't it be pretty good evidence that the program had not "just happened" but was the result of a carefully-thought-out and executed arrangement, planned in the Orient?

If you think this comparison is overdrawn, how many of you know that periodically, week by week, manifestos are allowed to be put up on the Bulletin Boards of the various governmental departments in Washington, instructing the Russian-Jewish Communists employed in such departments, in just what to do to further the designs of these overseas directing heads? Pictures have been taken of such bulletins, and the American who dares to criticize them or attempt to rip them down finds himself in serious trouble at the hands of this Administration.

How many of you know that there are Russian Jews domiciled in Washington, some of them drawing salaries from the Treasury for filling two or three offices in different Departments at once, who have open access to Roosevelt and the White House at any time, and who bear the reputation among the rank and file of Jews in government departments of having been "loaned" by Stalin to counsel the American government Communists in taking over this government and "steering" the revolution to success?

The heads of the Silvershirts know who these men are, where they have their secret residences in Washington or its suburbs, and what goes on behind closed doors as between them and the highest officers of the federal Administration.

Roosevelt not only knows that such things are going on. He fills his present position to "sit on the lid" of officialdom till a sufficient degree of economic attrition has ruined the country, or soft-soap the citizenry till the country has gotten too far along the road toward Jewish Communism to recover and turn back.

Of course a sufficient number of honest but unenlightened Gentiles are sprinkled through the whole government arrangement to make it appear that such statements are fantastic.

¶ That, too, is part of the strategy. And to make certain that no patriotic group moves to impeach him for such obedience to the Jewish bloc overseas, the man gets hold of billions of dollars of relief funds and then serves notice, in effect, through ten thousand Party henchmen, that whosoever opposes him will be ruthlessly cut off the federal spoils roll, or receive no allotment to feed the starving citizens of his district. Terror at hunger affects enough voters so that they keep this unholy Gang in power without grasping its fatal character. The day will arrive soon when the command will no longer be put out by inference, delicately, that whoever doesn't approve of the New Deal in all its phases shall get no relief. It will be curt, blunt, and ruthless. It will say: "Obey or step out of the bread-line and starve!" To such extent can the burglary of such a proud nation as the United States once was, proceed, if it be artfully done in its opening stages and the people's political traditions respected till the point is reached where they can be cynically thrown overboard. Already the Iron Hand gets sterner in its grasp, as witness the (Red) Fireside Chat which the President gave forth on June 25th. Roosevelt practically told the people of this country—through the address to that end written and put in his mouth—that they no longer could enjoy their own wealth unless they turned "liberal" and supported the Jew

Deal. Someone has aptly said that: "One third of the people of this country are bribed, one third are deceived, and one third are mad!" But Roosevelt rides roughshod along his chosen program because he could not do otherwise and be permitted to remain in his exalted position.

THE PROOF that Silvershirts are by no means tilting at windmills in such warnings, is found in an interview which the official of a labor organization had the other day with the President's son. As reported in most of the eastern papers, Jimmie is alleged to have said that "Father is mightily disturbed at these gatherings of Silvershirts in little home groups all over the country." Nothing was mentioned as to what could be done about it, but all the same, father didn't like 'em. Obviously, the reason father didn't like 'em was, that the Silvershirts are not only telling the truth to these private knots of worried people—the Mad Third—but have found a way to pass on information about Roosevelt's Red Racket in a manner that it may leave the man jobless. Nothing short of an open revolution and the installation of an efficient OGPU could halt groups of people meeting in private homes to learn the truth of the Great Skullduggery being contrived from the top of the nation. So no less a personage than the President himself criticizes exactly the action which you people here this moment are taking, to apprize yourself of the truth of conditions and consider ways to end them.

The Silvershirts take the position that Roosevelt was selected for his job as "the Kerensky of this revolution" after a careful canvass of the field, because he possessed the right amount of vanity, physical handicap, mental bombast, and small-bored stubbornness to accomplish the things that the Jew Gang wanted accomplished as prelude to the seizure of America. After he has served in the role that this Gang wants the President of the United States to play at this time—while the country is being gutted into revolution—he will be tossed on the political scrapheap overnight and an open dictator installed in his place.

Of course it will be the so-called "Fascist" or Republican "political enemies" of the Jew-Deal who will be blamed for such scrapping. But that too is part of the well-thought-out technique.

Knowing it, however, and not being surprised when it happens, is half our battle won in advance.

TO SHOW you to what extent this Red-Government Racket has penetrated into Washington, I want to take the case of one man in point. How many of you have copies of What Every Congressman Should Know right now in your pockets? I want you to take them out and turn to the list of Jews in our government under the Department of Labor. Eight on the list is the name "Dr. W. N. Polakov, Consulting Engineer."

The Sponsor should pause a moment till this man's name is located and noted. . . .

You will note that this man Polakov is listed as a retained engineer attached to Madam Perkins' unit of the Administration although why she needs a Consulting Engineer on salary is a mystery, and of course drawing a salary from the taxpayers' money and federal Treasury for whatever "consultations" the Madam may arrange with him.

Now turn to the Works Progress Administration. Tenth on the list of big-shot Jews running WPA you will note W. Polakof, Staff Engineer.

Notice the difference in the spelling of the name. Notice that as Staff Engineer this man Polakof is ostensibly drawing a salary from WPA for whatever vague and unidentified duties a "Staff Engineer" may be called in to do.

Mark these two names in your book What Every Congressman Should Know and show them to your friends outside this group at every opportunity. At the nation's Capital you will hear many weird reports about this person, Polakov.

He claims to be a "Russian," born in St. Petersburg in 1879 and educated in the Royal Institute of Technology, Saxony, Germany. Then he took a special course in Psychology and Industrial Hygiene in the University of Moscow.

In 1906 he came over here where he held a job for a time as Superintendent of Motive Power for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad. From there he became Expert Consulting Engineer for the Department of Docks and Ferries of the City of New York, Construction Engineer for the Pennsylvania Light & Power Company, and during the World War had climbed into a place as Power Expert for the United States Shipping Board.

Now any emigrant has the right to come to this country and climb up in the world, but since Lenin and Trotsky put a gun to Russia's forehead and took that country over in 1918-19, the man we have under discussion has been reported as industriously ferrying back and forth between the United States and Moscow. From 1929 to 1931 he was openly announced as "Management and Consultant to the Supreme Economic Council, USSR"—or the United Soviet of Socialist Republics under Josef Stalin.

Very good! The New-Deal comes into Washington, followed by the very questionable CIO, and all of a sudden we find Polakof—or Polakov—one of the Big Shots behind the Roosevelt-Yiddish Administration. He comes and goes at the White House as though he were one of the Presidential Secretaries. He gets his name down on the payroll, apparently, of two government departments at once. But what the public isn't generally aware of, is that in the new CIO Headquarters Building on 15th Street in Washington he is accredited with having an office surpassing in splendor anything which the United States furnishes for the President at the White House!

The other day in Washington, Chief Pelley heard two friendly Secret Service men discussing Polakov and his activities.

"What's he doing over here?" asked the Chief.

"Oh," responded the Secret Service man cynically, "he's one of the crowd loaned by Stalin to Roosevelt to steer him successfully in setting up Sovietism in the United States!"

That ominous phrase, "loaned by Stalin," is something you can hear regarding more than one prominent New-Dealer at the nation's Capital at present.

Is any member of these Councils so insane or childish as to imagine that a horde of Russian Jews so artfully tied into federal affairs, and so influential as connecting links between the Administration, the White House, the CIO Headquarters, and Yiddish Moscow, is going to pass out of this political picture merely by a change in the federal elections, or by any other methods than being forced out?

Day by day, week by week, month by month, while all this pernicious mischief concerning Pump-Priming and Relief is being touted in the newspapers and over the microphones, men like Polakov are worming in deeper and deeper, taking over more and more influential responsibilities, breaking down the American system of free government, and organizing kommissar bureaus in the various government departments. To inveigh against them is to be scorched as a seditionist, or Fascist, or a wrecker of American "democracy"—because they are doing their work strictly within the existing law and without exciting comment about themselves in the minds of the general public.

¶ The Silvershirts take the position that men like Roosevelt are put up in the limelight to take the bouquets or brickbats for all this alteration, while the men like Polakov assiduously do the fine-work of cementing the gains which the Yiddishers have made, so that the American people may wake up one of these mornings and discover themselves absolutely helpless to get rid of them.

¶ This Dr. Polakov may be a legitimate consultant engineer in his professional capacity, but what's he doing on the payroll of two governmental departments at once, and "in and out" of the White House daily, while at the same time he rates an office in the Communistic CIO Building quite on a par with Lewis himself?

SILVERSHIRTS should know these things, and when Chief Pelley talks of the Red Racket that is being played in Washington, he doesn't refer to the ordinary financial gyp-game that is commonly conducted in our big cities by leaders of the Underworld. He is talking about the secret and pernicious tactics being pursued behind the officed doors of American officialdom, where the American citizen has no personal business to penetrate, and yet out from which go the directions that are turning our country over, day by day and week by week, to foreign Jewish direction and rulership. Politically speaking, therefore, when the Silvershirts perceive what is happening behind the closed doors of Halls of State, they likewise survey a nation in which the political contest is dividing sharply as between two basic camps, the Christian Republicans and the Jewish Democrats! This doesn't mean, of course, that all Republicans are Christians in the religious sense, or in ethical practices. It doesn't mean that all Democrats are blind stooges for Jews and Communists. It means rather, that if the United States is to adhere to the traditional two-party system, and the Jewish Reds have practically taken over the machinery of the Democratic Party, the entire remainder of the American people who are opposed to the Yiddisher

Democrats are automatically Christian Republicans. They are Christian Republicans in principles, at least, if not in party organization or name. As such, we should regard them. Furthermore, if politically-minded people want to pursue the mirage that all this skull-duggery is to be ended overnight merely by a change in the federal Administration, we Silvershirts should indulge them to the extent of showing them which of two camps they are aligned with. Such people, believing that this vast lechery can be abolished by strictly political means, are at least entitled to their opinions. True, they hold to those opinions because they don't know as yet the terrible extent of the country's sacking, or how brazenly effective is becoming the Red-Jew bloc in our federal government. They don't know that the same great Jewish interests that have sabotaged the Democratic Party have laid equally artful plans to control or emasculate the Republican Party, in the event that political sentiment should suddenly veer away from New-Dealism all over the nation. They don't know that the great Jewish banking houses, through which these Moscovite interests operate, get six of their partners to back the Democrats, and six of their partners to back the Republicans, and then whichever camp wins, the members of the firm as a firm go to the successful political Party and say: "Now we helped get you into power, so now it is up to you to pay your political debts by acceding to our political directions." That's the way the political racket is being worked in the United States at the moment, and if it were a Republican bloc that ascended into the seat of federal power tomorrow under traditional political practices, the work of Yiddish Sovietism—and communizing this nation—would go straight forward, with only slight alterations in secretarial personnel. It is ignorance of this racket, and the way it is worked, that makes the average man assume that another election will find the Republicans back in power and the economic and bolshevist nightmare something that is finished. Furthermore, the average man doesn't want to see violence of any sort happen, so he shrinks into his political shell and talks about "settling American problems in the American manner." What he means is, that he wants to see the nation go back to old-time Constitutionalism, but he is not yet aware that old-time Constitutionalism has actually been abolished in everything but name.

The great rank and file of the citizenry, such as voted for Lincoln, Cleveland, McKinley, or Calvin Coolidge, is no longer in control of its institutions. It is simply allowed to rubberstamp whichever candidate it fancies it wants at election-time, whereupon the same bureaucracy continues to function straight ahead and do the things that the Overseas Clique wants accomplished.

Incidentally, that is why the Yiddish element is screaming so hysterically these days for the "preservation of democracy" . . . Democracy as the Yiddishers conceive it, is the free and open system by which they are left in full control of either Party at their whim, and with no bloc arising from the rank-and-file to challenge or restrain them. The minute any bloc, or any leader, arises to challenge their manipulation of both Parties to the common end, at once they screech "Fascism!" or "It's un-American and ought to be probed!"

So the average citizen who argues that we should arrive at relief by altering our President or the political party in power, is merely a lovable ignoramus. He lacks the faintest idea of the colossal skullduggery that is being played in behind the idealistic concept of the constitutional form of government. To get mad at him for this, to tell him that he's an ignoramus, or attempt to browbeat him out of his idealism, is only setting up sales resistance for ourselves. Moreover, it is childish.

If you come across a citizen who is strong for the political solution, therefore, and who sincerely believes in going back to the political system in vogue when Calvin Coolidge appeared on—or left—the national scene, mark him down not for the slighting name of “dumb cluck,” but for a bit of education along the line of his own arguings.

Concede in an entirely bonafide fashion that Silvershirts everywhere agree with him academically—that is, in theory. But ask him if he's aware of the frustrations and obstacles which the Pump-Priming Crowd are setting up day after day to keep his ideals from again being realized? Then proceed to explain them to him.

If you can get him to examine into the general nature of the federal situation, he'll arrive of his own free-will at the realization finally that the Red Mob isn't going to relinquish without a fight. In other words, Presidents or no Presidents, Democrats or Republicans, they are in to stay so long as the Aryan-Americans tolerate their physical persons in offices of state at all!

But whether they're nominal Democrats or anti-New-Dealers of any stripe, by the very nature of being against the Yiddish Democrats they're actually Christian Republicans already.

And as Christian Republicans, in principle they're Silvershirts!

YOU people here who are getting acquainted at first-hand with Silvershirt fundamentals, are going to be asked on all sides to define your political standards as the months rock on toward another election. And you will want to know, concisely and irrefutably, how Silvershirts all over the nation feel about the political set-up and what platform they embrace—insofar as the Yiddish element in power allows it to be embraced—in the coming months of our country's history.

The Silver Legion, of course, went on record in 1936 as propounding its own political unit, The Christian Party. But those were the times when some such stand had to be taken on the definite question of Gentile and Jew. Today the nation is everywhere Jew-conscious, and Roosevelt's tactics are becoming known for what they are. No matter what names we aspire to use, therefore, the fact remains in practice that the country's voters are squaring off into two mighty camps: Political stooges for the Yiddish Communists, known as Democrats, and, Free-thinking voters opposed to the Roosevelt chicaneries that automatically square off as Republicans. It is our business as Silvershirts to recognize this, accredit it, and build our gains upon it. A voter in the South may call himself an old-line Democrat, but that is all an item of sentiment. If he "has no use" for the Yiddisher Gang, then in principle he has ceased to be a Democrat and has turned a Christian Republican. Whether he enrolls under the banner of the Republican political machine, or accepts Herbie Hoover as the lame-duck chieftain of the nominal Party, or Langdon, or Hamilton, or Glenn Frank, or Joe Whoozis, is quite beside the point. Whoever is intelligently against the New-Deal and Jewish Communism in Federal affairs, is a Silvershirt!

It is altogether a question of "camps"—or massings of humanity upon this platform or that platform—advancing the interests of Communistic Jews or obstructing and defeating them. Upon that broad basis, the Silvershirts take their political stand. "Are you against the New-Deal and Red Jews in government?" is the challenge each and every voter must face. If the solitaire voter declares that he is, then he is a Christian Republican and a Silvershirt, and ten thousand angels sitting down to write names for him can't make him otherwise.

THE RED political racket out of Washington, D. C., is being sustained by the same bloc of international Jewish leaders, no matter whether a Democrat or a Republican is temporarily in power. Most of them are in the international banking business, but that is not only a method for making vast sums of money out of the Gentiles' silly and venal financial system while at the same time pushing their race forward as dictators to all governments in the universe. If the person of political temperament challenges any such claim, let him examine the list of big-shot Jews who have been elevated to the highest positions the past dozen years by both Republicans and Democrats alike.

Herbert Hoover himself was a Democrat in the last year of Wilson's administration, and a Republican President in 1928—disclosing the utter cynicism with which big-shot agents for the international Jew Gang are shifted about.

Only we Gentiles are sticklers for terminology.

These men hold such steady jobs for a consistent and indomitable purpose. The small-fry are allowed to go and come, to be hired and fired, to be fed the political plums or denied them, but the big-fry persist, year after year, administration after administration, doing the actual ruling of the American Gentiles in behind the scenes and fearing only some form of Fascist violence to throw them out.

Now what is the answer from the Silver-shirt standpoint?

SILVERSHIRTS look upon all this political juggling as childish nonsense, which the man in the street doesn't want to accredit and couldn't alter if he would. The thing that is going to bring the real change in the whole of it is the economic prostration of the United States!

Sooner or later the financial structure, based upon all this pump-priming nonsense, is going to crash. That crash may come before this booklet sees print, or it may be delayed for months. But when it comes, the United States will find itself in the position of any business corporation whose irresponsible or incompetent directors have steered it into bankruptcy.

For a temporary time at least, economic necessity is going to demand the appointment and administration of a Receiver. That Receiver may be given any one of a thousand names, depending upon whether a Jew or Gentile has cause to refer to him. But he will administer the affairs of this defunct corporation until it is put back upon a paying basis again. Then he will vacate and turn the concern's management over to a more competent Board.

Receivers are never permanent. They are not supposed to make themselves permanent officers of any given company. Nor are they supposed to usurp the rights and prerogatives of Directors or Stockholders. When they have done their purging work, rehabilitated the concern, and found competent executives to do a better job of management henceforth, they proceed about other pursuits.

But any receiver takes his power from the influence of either a judicial or financial group. Thereat he acts as agent for the creditors and stockholders.

We are headed for such a Receivership as a nation right now, at the speed of a million-dollar deficit every day. The Congress and Executive Departments as Directors and Officers have steered the concern into utter bankruptcy. Presently it shall become the duty of the stockholders to back up such a receiver and have their concern put back in healthier shape. The Jewish Democrats be-think to have a man like John L. Lewis declared receiver—and the rehabilitated concern run thereafter as a Jewish Soviet.

The Christian Republicans believe a man can be found who stands like Lincoln or Coolidge, for sane and American Constitutionalism but minus the mischief-workers imported from overseas to sabotage the concern so that it can be bought in at bankruptcy prices.

These two great camps are slowly forming and taking shape, week upon week and month upon month. Each is daily and hourly making itself more distinctive and antithetical to the other.

So, when you get into a Silvershirt Post, or actively engaged in Silver Legion work, your political imagery should be clear.

The Christian Republicans—and the Silvershirts—would not abolish Constitutionalism. They would restore it! But first of all, the rascals who have wrought the debacle must be shoveled out, and only a temporary receiver would have the power to accomplish it. How shall such a receiver be given such power, seeing that there is no court but the Court of Public Opinion high enough to appoint him? There again, we have our answer in the Economic Necessity.

WHEN the nation goes absolutely static and prostrate, the man or set of men who have the Plan and the Integrity are going to be presented with their supreme opportunity to show what they can do. Thereafter, when the span of receivership has been run of the same necessity, the Two-Party System must be preserved in America as between the forces of Continuing Construction and the forces of Frustrated Disruption.

☐ Meanwhile, however, while the receiver approaches, or is in progress, politics as such has to be taken as a matter of minor importance in the face of drastic action. That is not saying that the Silvershirts are not committed to sterling constitutional principles. It is saying that Silvershirts know the deep basalt basis underlying the whole political structure and would demonstrate the sagacity to act in the face of it.

The Jewish Reds call anything that isn't of their own sponsorship, Fascist!

It is not an American word, and is anathema to the American political ideal.

But there must be a word coined eventually to express strictly American antipathy to Jewish Skullduggery as a continuing and permanent program behind maneuvers of State.

The American Silvershirts are not particularly interested in words or terms, however, but in basic principles. They stand for a cleanly-restored constitutionalism, refounded on a rehabilitated economic structure!

Christian Republicanism as a political idea opposed to Jewish Democracy is the happiest expression of the ideal that has yet come to hand.

Now then, with the foregoing as our cues in the matter, let us see where in No More Hunger provision has been advanced for proposing a system whereunder the Overseas Carpet-Baggers could never come back into secret political domination of our Federal government. . . .

The Sponsor will hereupon take up and discuss with Council members the chapters in the Christian Commonwealth Plan that deal with the provisions of the mailed ballot and official recall of executives. Find out how many councillors present truly know the difference between Republicanism and Democracy. Have each one express his opinion as to why he may have been a Democrat or a Republican in the past.

Requesting one of the councillors to read George Washington's excoriations of all political parties in his Farewell Address, may alter the notions of some present. Provoke thought and discussion by asking members to suggest what systems have taken the place of two-party systems in the past history of mankind. But make certain before dismissal that councillors understand the broad basis for Silver Legion political sponsorship contained in the ideas of Jewish Democrats as against Christian Republicans.
