

Dilling Appeal Granted

CHICAGO, Oct. 5—Over Government protests that a two-year delay might result, Judge William H. Holly today granted Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling an appeal from an order directing her to go to Washington to face a sedition indictment. The author of the anti-Communist "Red Network" previously had lost her fight against removal before a U. S. Commissioner and in Federal District Court on a habeas corpus writ.