The Hour Is Late!!

The conspiracy to destroy the Church and communize the world is now coming into plain view.

The bold attempt on the part of Russia to take over all the nations of Europe and Asia can no longer be denied.

Christians in Greece are being shot down by the atheistic hordes of Communism.

The world revolution of the anti-Christ is on.

Stalin's killers and revolutionists are prepared to take over all liberated nations in Europe as rapidly as they are set free from Hitler by the blood-bought courage of our sons.

The brazen attempt to communize Greece and Italy has even nauseated the conscientious liberals of Britain.

Churchill now realizes that if Greece, Yugoslavia and Italy fall to the Communists, Red revolution will triumph.

DeGaulle of France has made a deal with Stalin which grants the Communists a private army to be abundantly supplied with ammunition.

If the Red monster replaces the Hitler tyranny, it will be the end of the Greek Church, the Roman Church, and the Protestant Church in Europe. IN GOD'S NAME—CHRISTIANS UNITE! We may not all agree theologically, but we can agree on man's desire to worship Christ.

Chiang Kai-Shek of China has been threatened with annihilation. His troops face starvation unless he fills his cabinet with Communists and joins with the Stalin-trained Red army of North China.

We are fighting the Japs virtually single-handed, while Stalin barely veils the threat that unless China and India capitulate to him, he will not aid us in the defeat of Japan, with whom he is still at peace.

The present chaos in Europe only confirms the original theories advanced by the Nationalists. As this is written Churchill and Stalin are in a diplomatic struggle to control Europe and Asia. As of today, our President and our diplomats seem to be sympathetic with Stalin's plan.

If Red Russia is allowed to determine the destiny of Europe and Asia by the use of power which we have financed and helped develop, God pity the world. We can never condone the Imperialism of Churchill, but as between Churchill and Stalin, our choice is obvious.

No American can afford to be asleep now. The agents of atheistic Communism have planted themselves in every branch of our Government. They have saturated our educational system, our industrial life, the ether waves, and the amusement world. (Hollywood reeks with Reds.)

These agents of agitation and unrest, who only a few months ago branded as traitors all who were critical of the Imperialistic policies of Churchill, now beat the drums of hate and literal annihilation against Mr. Churchill.

WHY? Because Churchill has refused to turn the Christians of Greece over to the Red Barbarians. Led by such character assassins as Walter Winchell, these pro-Stalin drum beaters now cry for Churchill's blood. They smear him . . . they impugn his integrity without reserve . . . not because Churchill is an Internationalist . . . not because he is an Imperialist . . . not because he is an enemy of peace . . . but these vile sons of Beezebub . . . these ruthless cursers of Christ now would annihilate Britain's Prime Minister in time of war because he has condemned the Red conspiracy to communize Europe.

Americans a w a k e !
The hour is later than we think.

No true American, though it break his heart, will begrudge blood spilled in defense of Christian civilization.

No true American will say or do anything to relax the zeal of those who hold Old Glory high.

BUT we must see to it that the blood our loved ones pour upon the saturated soil is not exploited by those who would pull down the cross and hoist the hammer and the sickle. Our sons are dying on the Western Front, we are told, in order that no longer shall the bodies of free men be branded with the white flames of the swastika. Yes, they die that the swastika and all it symbolizes may disappear, but they are not dying in order that Hitler's slaves branded in the forehead with the swastika, may be converted into Stalin's slaves and branded on the back with the hammer and the sickle.

Yes, our sons are dying that we may take Poland down from the cross, but they are

EDITORIAL COMMENT

ROOSEVELT YOUTH ALA HITLER

Anna Rosenberg, the No. 1 female brain-truster, has just returned from Europe, having spent several days near the front, but not too near. She comes back to tell us what we must do with our soldiers when they return from the battlefield.

Says Anna, "They should not be mustered out immediately." She wants them re-conditioned for citizenship. Of course, this would mean keeping them in a sort of educational concentration camp until the braintrusters and New Dealers made sure that they were ready to conduct themselves in harmony with the will of the bureaucrats.

Could it be that America Firsters and anti-New Dealers might not be mustered out quite as soon as those who knew how to get A plus in answering such questions as "How can I be a perfect bureaucrat?"

Now comes Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt asking for universal conscription, not the real soldier conscription, but a sort of training school for youth. In other words, they would institute "The Roosevelt Youth Program." The young men would be taught other things besides military science, including propaganda.

Hitler has a plan organized under what is called, "The Hitler Youth." The theory is that the young people shall be brought into these government camps and "adjusted" to meet the demands of the administration in power.

This would give the politicians opportunity to take out of the young men and young women any old-fashioned ideas that might not be in harmony with the current will of the bureaucrats in power.

We don't need any more glorified CCC camps or any Rosenberg-Roosevelt youth organizations set up on an ala Hitler basis. Military training to defend our country and our flag is one thing—propaganda camps are another.

JUDGE EICHER'S DEATH

If there is a heaven especially for the benefit of New Dealers and bureaucrats, Judge Eicher should go there. He served his masters well.

Justice Eicher was the Judge who presided over the trial of the 26. Keen observers said that he gave the defendants less liberty than they would have been allowed in a Moscow purge trial. Justice Eicher's sudden death has resulted in a "mistrial." This means that when, as and if the 26 are brought to trial again, a new jury must be summoned. It is estimated that if the trial starts again, it will take until the middle of 1946 to get as far as it had gotten when the Justice died.

The record of the trial covered many, many thousands of pages and many millions of words. Just the printed record weighs more than 150 pounds.

When the trial opened, it looked hopeless for the defendants. They were all impoverished, with one or two exceptions. All but three of the lawyers were appointed by the court to serve without charge. Not only did these lawyers serve their clients without charge, but no one paid the lawyers. Even so, these court-appointed lawyers were so nauseated by the unfair methods employed by Justice Eicher that they petitioned for his removal. Impressed by the unfairness of the whole set-up the lawyers became crusaders. Trained observers insist that these free lawyers did better than most paid lawyers do under similar circumstances.

As the trial progressed it became increasingly obvious that it was a persecution trial being conducted on a Moscow basis. All the instruments of smear and character assassination were levelled at these poor unfortunate people.

Concerning the trial, Representative Fish accused the Administration of using the mass trial strategy in violation of law because the defendants had attacked Communism and the Administration, and because they had opposed our entrance into the war. Representative Hoffman, who is an able attorney, said, "Not one particle of evidence has been produced to show any of the defendants to be guilty. It is the greatest farce in history."

STALIN, THE NATIONALIST

The No. 1 Nationalist in the world today is Josef Stalin. Stalin puts Russia first—Stalin does what he thinks is best for Russia regardless of what anyone else says or does. Evidently he expects to establish his sphere of influence in the Near East, in the Balkans, and around the Baltic Sea regardless of the will of any of his allies or the people in the little countries involved. I wonder what the Reds and the bureaucrats and the Internationalists would say about us if we Nationalists would advocate a conduct as extreme as now being practiced by Stalin.

The following summarizes a few of the reasons why Stalin is the world's No. 1 Nationalist:

1. He is dividing Poland regardless of the will of the Poles, the Church, or his allies.
2. He is helping to set up Communist governments in all of Eastern Europe.
3. His agents are fomenting pro-Russian strife in Belgium, Italy, Greece, Spain and the rest.
4. He is virtually serving notice that he will not fight Japan unless we co-operate with the Communists of China.
5. He refuses to permit our military men to visit the Russian front.
6. Communist organizations in every land on earth plan their activities strictly on the Russia-first basis.
7. Even the Dumbarton Oaks Plan may be junked because of Stalin's Nationalism.

HARRY A. ROMER, TRUE PATRIOT

AND REAL AMERICAN. Harry Romer, who was the Vice Presidential candidate on the America First ticket, is my idea of a genuine independent crusading fighting Christian American. First of all, he is loyal to his church in St. Henry, Ohio. Second, he is loyal to his family, being the father of nine living children. He has two sons in the service. He has been a source of inspiration to such crusading movements as the National Union of Social Justice, the America First Committee, the Committee of One Million, the Farmers Guild, and the America First Party. He is one who came to the defense of the eight farmers locked in prison by a bureaucrat because they bought a corn picker without a ration slip. When a local bureaucrat refused him the use of the school house for a meeting, he called a rally in the big field beside his home, and between 5,000 and 7,000 people came out to express their confidence in his Americanism.

Besides being a crusader for a noble cause, he is a frugal, successful businessman. He provides well for his family and enjoys respect among his customers and his creditors—he being a merchant.

For years he has been active in the American Legion, having been Commander and Chaplain of his own Post. He has been considered a rank-and-file leader and a thorn in the side of certain big shots in the Legion who desired to operate regardless of the will of the ordinary member.

At a recent rally Mr. Romer made a very timely and impressive address. Free printed copies of this address are now available. Besides the subject matter of the address, the printed copy contains a very accurate picture of Mr. Romer. We will be happy to mail a copy of this address free to anyone who requests it.

GERALD P. NYE AT THE CROSSROADS

United States Senator Gerald P. Nye should repudiate anything that looks like a private life. He owes it to his friends who have supported him and defended him through the years to plunge into the Nationalist Movement on a full-time basis. Americans need Senator Nye. He should tour the United States making speeches for Nationalism and against Internationalism. As a United States Senator he was tied down in Washington, but now that he has been defeated, he should have greater freedom to visit every important community in the United States.

Millions of people are anxious to meet Senator Nye, shake his hand, and be inspired by his tremendous knowledge of world affairs. I am informed that he is being tempted to retire to private life. This would be a fatal mistake. Senator Nye owes it to his country to carry the torch for crusading Nationalism.

BIDDLE- LITTELL

I have received so much bad publicity that I am naturally inclined to defend a person who is smeared in the newspapers. Attorney General Biddle is now being smeared by the daily press. It seems that the Assistant Attorney General, Mr. Littell (a vociferous New Dealer), has accused Mr. Biddle of some irregular practices. Biddle may be guilty. There will doubtless be a Congressional investigation of the whole scandal. Whatever the case may be, it should be remembered that it is merely a feud between two New Dealers. If any difference, Biddle is less a New Dealer than Littell.

We understand that certain Jews and certain Communists are very much put out with Mr. Biddle because he has not been more extreme in some of his practices. Future events should help us to answer some questions concerning this situation.

PEARSON IN THE SYNAGOGUE

Drew Pearson, the nationally known columnist and radio commentator, spoke in Detroit on the night of December 5. He spoke in the auditorium of Detroit's largest Jewish synagogue. His lecture was sponsored by the Jewish Brotherhood, which carries on a lecture course. I attended the lecture.

Mr. Pearson spoke for two hours concerning events in Washington, and on the battlefield, and made certain predictions concerning the postwar period. I have been criticised and condemned and even branded as a traitor to my country because in the earlier days of the war I refused to accept Stalin as Sir Galahad and Winston Churchill as St. Peter. I insisted that these men were still human beings, even though they did head the governments allied with us in this war. I was condemned by many periodicals, including numerous Jewish journals, for being a breeder of disunity because I occasionally voiced a criticism of the Stalin dictatorship and the Imperialistic policies of Churchill.

In Mr. Pearson's address at the synagogue he said certain things, raised certain questions, and produced certain doubts which would make me look like a piker when it comes to the criticism of our Allies. Among some of the rather shocking impressions he left were the following:

1. The British have pulled most of their troops out of Italy.
2. Our victory on the Western Front has been slowed down because of the relaxed fighting on the Russian front by the Russian army.
3. There has been considerable doubt in some quarters as to whether or not Russia has given us maximum aid since we opened the Western Front.
4. The Cairo Conference was virtually a failure.
5. His criticisms of Churchill and Britain could hardly have been more bitter in the heat of a peace-time political campaign.

WATCH VANDENBERG

Arthur Vandenberg, Senior Senator from Michigan, knows enough to be one of the best Senators in the United States. He does love, however, to be popular. If he so desired, he could lead a fight that would save America from entangling permanent alliances with foreign countries. It is to be hoped that Mr. Vandenberg will stand up on his two hind feet and fight the international clique.

Mr. Vandenberg's term expires in 1946. His reelection will depend very largely upon his conduct from here out.

Just a tip, Mr. Vandenberg—quit trying to be so agreeable with everybody. Take a tough stand once in a while and assure your old Nationalist friends that you haven't been taken over by the British, Union Now, Ely Culbertson, or even John Foster Dulles.

BUY AMERICAN

America's prosperity does not depend on foreign trade. At best it never passed more than 7% of our total trade. The real problem in producing prosperity here is the problem of distribution.

A scientific study should be made also of America's needs. It should be unlawful to import anything that can be produced in the United States.

The propagandists are about to begin a program to persuade us to destroy all our synthetic rubber factories so that after this war we will be compelled to buy raw rubber of the Dutch and the British. Henry

Wallace said at one time that if we didn't do this it might bring on another war.

To illustrate my point: Mr. Will Clayton, the super-doooper cotton broker and a member of Mr. Roosevelt's cabal of international financiers, some years ago developed the growth of cotton in Brazil, and while we were paying our farmers to destroy cotton in the United States, Mr. Clayton and his friends were shipping Brazilian cotton into our country.

Some years ago when we were pouring milk on the ground and compelling the farmers to shoot and bury cows, we were buying millions of pounds of cheese and butter of foreign countries. At one time we were paying farmers to destroy cattle and we were buying beef for our Navy in Argentina.

We must put an end to this monkey business. That is what we mean when we say AMERICA FIRST.

WHO GETS THE PEOPLE OR STALIN? EUROPE— Stalin is organizing to take over Europe. The Communist Party in every European nation is rising up to seize control of local governments. It will be interesting to see who gets control of Europe, Stalin or the people.

Britain objected strenuously to a pro-Communist being on the cabinet in the Italian government. Our State Department announced a hands-off policy, which of course means, let Stalin take it if he wants it and can get it.

In recent days the British have been fighting a rather indirect war with Stalin. British soldiers have been shooting Communists in Athens, Greece. Reports indicate that the Communists have plenty of guns, mortars, cannons, hand grenades, rifles, bullets and airplanes. They didn't get them of us, so they must have gotten them of Stalin. These incidents merely indicate how foolish it is going to be for us to try to join any kind of a world super government when this war is over.

THE LOW-DOWN ON CHINA The Chinese situation cannot be over-simplified. Of course, there has never been a democracy in China. The people never get a chance to vote. There are two political factions: One faction is led by Chiang Kai-Shek, and another faction is led by the Communists. Chiang refuses to co-operate with the Communists. Some years ago he is supposed to have accepted the Christian religion. He got his start as the leader of a guerilla army—in fact, guerilla is rather a complimentary name for it. A few years ago they were referred to as bandits. Chiang's army developed into a rather respectable army, and he announced his ambition to set up a Republic where eventually the people would have some voice in the government.

Pressure is now being brought on Chiang to co-operate with the Communist armies in order to whip Japan. Thus far he has refused to pledge such co-operation. Critical observers believe that he will perhaps be dropped and kicked out unless he is willing to play ball with Stalin and his Reds.

It is my personal conviction that his wife, who is now in this country, is a refugee, and that it is only a matter of time until Chiang and his clique will have to flee China for their lives.

MORE ABOUT TYLER KENT Some time ago I prepared an account of the Tyler Kent mystery. It is the sensational story of the American code clerk, now in a British concentration camp. The story contains allegations which, if they can be established, will upset political apple carts all over the world. Before this story was sent out I double-checked it with young Kent's mother, Mrs. Ann H. P. Kent, who now lives in Washington, D. C.

Since the story was published there has come to my attention a feature article by Mr. Frank C. Hanighen, which appeared in The Progressive, a weekly periodical published by United States Senator La-Follette. Mr. Hanighen makes some very interesting observations in an article entitled "The Curious Case of Tyler Kent." Among other things, Mr. Hanighen says,

One evening in July, 1942, I was sitting in a London apartment with a number of Labor members of the British Parliament. They were discussing Churchill, and not with any great magnanimity, for they nursed hope of ousting him and his party. Ere long, I was hearing from their lips almost precisely the same story about Tyler Kent, Ramsay, Wolkoff et al that I had heard the year before in Washington.

Almost precisely, but plus one interesting detail (of which more later). Their concern in the cause, however, was different from that of The Chicago Tribune. They were not criticizing Roosevelt for dealing to put the United States into the war. They were censuring Churchill for dealing with a foreign ruler to upset a government and put himself in as Prime Minister. And they naturally stressed Churchill's unfaithful attitude towards the head of his party.

NOTE: Those who desire a full copy of "The Story of Tyler Kent" may obtain same at 25c per copy. Address your requests to me, Post Office Box 459, Detroit, Michigan.

UNEMPLOYMENT AT HAND During the 30 days prior to the writing of this comment nearly 100,000 men and women have been laid off in the City of Detroit. R. J. Thomas, head of the UAW-CIO, admitted that 74,000 had been laid off in 20 factories, not counting those whose hours have been shortened.

It seems that in certain industries making ammunition, men have been leaving factories to get employment in peacetime industries. True enough, we are behind in the production of specific war materials, but we are on the eve of a terrible unemployment situation. We had better spend less time figuring out how we are going to govern the Hottentots and the head hunters and more time on how we are going to make jobs for 60 million war workers without being completely regimented and surrendering most of our personal liberty.

CANADIAN RIOTS Canada is divided into two political and racial factions. One faction is governed by French tradition and the other is governed by British tradition. The French cannot forget that in the early days they were the victims of British Imperialism. They were persecuted, banished, starved, and subdued by tyrants. This experience has stuck in their minds through the generations. Result: Canada has never been able to put over successfully a universal conscription plan. As of the day this is written, no Canadian boy can be sent overseas without his volunteering to be sent.

As I have told you in other articles, there has been no conscription in Canada, New Zealand, Australia or South Africa. At the same time the young men from these countries have fought heroically in this war.

Recently the government of Canada announced its intention of conscripting Canadian boys for overseas service. It has created a terrible uproar. Riots have broken out. Thousands of Canadian young men (mostly French) have paraded, rioted, and demonstrated great resistance to any attempt to conscript them for overseas service in what they consider a war to save the British.

Perhaps no enemy of Britain hates the English more than certain French citizens in Canada. They even refuse to speak the English language. All Canadian laws are written in two languages—French and English—and all Canadian money has on its face the same two languages.

100 BILLIONS

When the war is over we will have 100 billions of dollars worth of surplus materials. These materials will include everything from shoe strings to battleships, from socks to tanks. There is much excitement in Washington over how this surplus material is to be handled. The President has recently appointed three men to dispose of this property. If grafters get in, certain favorite ones will make themselves multi-millionaires by virtually stealing this surplus material.

Following the last war, certain individuals in Maryland, for instance, were able to buy ships that had cost from one to 10 million dollars each for as little as 5 thousand dollars each. These ships theoretically were bought for junk, but later it was discovered that they were floated intact to Japan and sold at a tremendous profit.

Anyone caught racketeering on this 100 billions worth of surplus material which has been bought and paid for by the blood money of a sacrificial people not only should be locked in jail, but should be locked under the jail.

AMMUNITION SHORTAGE

General Eisenhower thought the war would be over in 1944. He said so. Recently when interviewed he refused to make a guess because, to quote his words, "I have turned out to be a poor guesser."

As I write this article, the German West wall still stands. Certain expert observers believe that it will cost us one-half million more men in casualties to overcome Germany. It is requiring much more ammunition than we had anticipated. One soldier boy brought back from the front to help in the bond campaign revealed that his outfit had to wait three days for ammunition necessary to fire on the enemy.

It is too bad that we had to wait until after the election to get some of this bad news.

THE HOUSE OF MORGAN IN COMMAND

One of the strangest things in national affairs is the way all the Internationalists work together. Things have reached such a state that the Communists work right along with the International Bankers, including the House of Morgan. About the only people who are being left out in the cold (within the Administration) are the liberals who are too conservative to be Red and too pink to be conservative.

But when it comes to Earl Browder, head of the Communist Party, and Tom Lamont of the House of Morgan, they seem to be "palsy-walsy."

Mr. Roosevelt at this writing has appointed as head of the State Department a whole group of men who could be well dubbed as the "offspring of the House of Morgan." The new Secretary of State Stettinius is the son of a Morgan partner. Nelson Rockefeller is the grandson of John D. Rockefeller, and needs no description. William Clayton, the world's richest cotton broker, who is just as interested in producing cotton in Brazil as he is in the United States and perhaps more so, belongs to the Morgan clique.

Thus we have a State Department organized to co-operate in exploiting the world in behalf of the steel monopoly, the cotton monopoly and the oil monopoly. These men and others like them are the appointees of Roosevelt, the Internationalist.

UPTON CLOSE

Upton Close is one of "the last of the Mohicans" when it comes to free speech on the radio. Every sensible person knows what Upton Close is. In the first place, he is a good American. He is an anti-New Dealer. He is an enemy of Communism. He is a free soul. That is enough to get any man kicked off the radio, and it is exactly what has happened to Mr. Close as it pertains to the National Broadcasting Company.

At this writing he is still on the Mutual Network and can be heard Sunday evening at 6:30 Eastern War Time.

Unless there is a show of courage in the realm of radio, which has thus far not appeared, I prophesy that Mr. Close will not remain on the Mutual Network much longer.

NO MANDATE

The recent election was no mandate to do anything. Both candidates stood for the same thing and concluded behind the scenes. Roosevelt and Dewey agreed to make no issue out of the question of World Government or an International Police Force.

A new trick has been invented in American politics—namely, after the two old parties have nominated their candidates, the two candidates agree not to discuss the real issues. They agree to indorse Internationalism, and because they do thus agree, the one that wins assumes that he has a mandate from the people to be an Internationalist. What a farce! What fakery.

TREASON DELUXE

Anyone who knows even a little bit about World Government knows that there is no such thing as World Government without force to back it up. An international organization without an International Police Force is just about as strong as a garden party given by a missionary society. All nationalities are represented, but nobody has the authority to do anything.

I know of no Nationalist who is opposed to various heads of the various governments talking things over in a congenial sort of way. The recent Pan American Conferences have been on this order. The real teeth in World Government is a police force. That is where the trouble is going to come.

Several months before the election, Mr. Roosevelt said he was against a World Police Force, but during the campaign in order to keep up with Dewey, he implied that he favored a World Police Force. Of course, one can never know what Mr. Roosevelt believes by what he says.

When the treaty following this war comes to the Senate for debate, the debate is going to develop around one real question—namely, will we permit Congress to delegate its authority to send men into battle to some sort of a super delegate whom we send to sit on some sort of a super international police council?

Well, that is where the Nationalists come in. That is the sort of thing we are going to fight. I do not think that our Senate will ever indorse such an unconstitutional procedure.

I do not think the American people want some super New Dealer or Internationalist appointed by Mr. Roosevelt to be able to sign a paper in Casablanca or Quebec that will order a million of our men into battle without the consent of Congress.

In my opinion, a proposal to destroy American sovereignty and unite our nation under a Super Government and a new flag is treason—at least it is a violation of the Constitution. Even the Internationalists admit that federal union with Britain is un-Constitutional. This trick to get us back into the British Empire, where we Americans would be little more or less than the tax slaves of the London sophisticates, is a scheme being advocated by the pro-British propagandist Clarence Streit. One of the baby members of the Senate (Fulbright of Arkansas, a Rhodes scholar) has been bottle-fed and nursed on this British milk. Justice Owen J. Roberts of the Supreme Court is another public official who is always shouting for a federal union with Britain. What did these men mean when they promised to uphold the Constitution of the United States? Does their oath mean anything?

If the Constitution means anything, it means independence from Britain. That is what the War of Independence was about.

RACE RIOT A set of agitators deluxe in the City of Detroit spend their time trying to stir up trouble between the whites and the blacks. One such person, Rev. Claude Williams, who poses as a Presbyterian preacher but whose mangy outfit is supported by all the Communist organizations in the United States, is always introducing resolutions calling for my imprisonment and trying to blame everything from the race riot to the weather on Gerald L. K. Smith and the America First Crusade.

Another member of this clique is an alleged sociologist by the name of Alfred McClung Lee, who is a professor at Wayne University, a tax-supported institution in Detroit. He recently compiled a book entitled "Race Riot." It is perhaps the most complete compilation of mis-information ever to come under my eye.

My attitude toward the American Negro has always been that of a Christian. This book, which Professor Lee has prepared with the aid and assistance of Detroit's leading Communists as well as Detroit's leading "goofs," sentimentalists and naive nuts, advocates everything from inter-marriage on up and down as a solution for the race problem. He condemns me for being a Nazi-like propagandist because I said in The Cross and the Flag some months ago the following:

I know of no self-respecting person in the City of Detroit who is opposed to Negroes having every modern facility necessary to make them comfortable and to assist them in their desire to be progressive. BUT . . . Most white people will not agree to any of the following suggestions:

1. Inter-marriage of blacks and whites.
2. Mixture of blacks and whites in hotels.
3. Mixture of blacks and whites in restaurants.
4. Intimate relationships between blacks and whites in the school system.
5. Wholesale mixture of blacks and whites in residential sections.
6. Promiscuous mixture of blacks and whites in street cars and on trains, especially where black men are permitted to sit down and crowd in close to white women and vice versa. I have every reason to believe black women resent being crowded by white men on street cars and elsewhere.
7. Promiscuous mixture of blacks and whites in factories, especially where black men are mixed with white women closely in daily work.

I would like to hear from Americans who are good Christians who think that any one of the above seven practices would be practical. What is wrong with these points that I made in my former magazine article which appeared in The Cross and the Flag?

Some of these sociologists are deliberate Communist propagandists, seeking to agitate the Negroes into a revolutionary group. Others are people who think themselves good Christians and good Americans but are always advocating impractical things.

I defy any man to open up a campaign in any great city in America advocating inter-marriage between blacks and whites and promiscuous mixture of blacks and whites without doing more harm than good. These nuts and agitators do more harm to both races than they do good. The sensational part of it all is that any sensible good Christian American Negro will agree with my logic in this matter.

STRAIGHT ANSWERS WANTED CONCERNING IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

At this writing, Stalin, Churchill and Roosevelt have not had that big meeting. When they do meet there are some straight questions the American people would like them to answer.

1. What will be the fate of Poland?
2. Will Stalin demand the communization of China in return for fighting Japan?
3. What is Stalin's attitude toward the anti-Communist Chiang Kai-Shek?
4. Why did Stalin's official newspaper oppose American troops in Iran, especially when they were sent there to guard American property?
5. Why did Russia force Romania to form a Communist cabinet?
6. Will Stalin permit Finland to remain free? (The only Ally in the last war who attempted to pay her debt to the United States.)
7. Why did Russia refuse to renew diplomatic relations with Switzerland?
8. What are DeGaulle's sympathies with Communism? Is it true that he (DeGaulle) pardoned Maurice Thorez, a Communist leader in France, a deserter now living in Moscow?
9. Why has Stalin made sudden demands on Turkey without consulting his allies?
10. Is Stalin supporting the Red revolutionists in Greece?
11. What is Stalin's policy in Yugoslavia and Italy?

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, FIFTH COLUMNIST (?)

Abraham Lincoln was not only a great statesman, philanthropist, and emancipator, but he was a realist. He was a man who had the courage to look facts and truth directly in the face and solve problems in the light of not only theory but practice. He led in the emancipation of the slaves. He, more than any one man, was instrumental in freeing the Negro from bondage.

In an address before the free Negroes of Washington, he discussed with them frankly the problem of the inter-mixture of races socially. He advocated a homeland for Negroes where they could rule themselves and be supreme.

Among other things on this occasion, Mr. Lincoln said:

I would say moreover that there is a physical difference between these races which will forever prevent the Negro and the white man living on a basis of social and political equality.

I suppose if Abraham Lincoln were alive, he would be accused of being a Fifth Columnist. I advocate the same things that Abraham Lincoln advocated, and based on what I say the Reds have inaugurated a campaign of vilification designed to incite Negroes against me. Patriotic Christian Negroes will not be deceived by this technique.

SENATE BEWARE! Under the Constitution a treaty negotiated by the President cannot be ratified except it have a two-thirds majority of the Senate. The original purpose of this

THE CROSS OF WAR

Is It Due To Cupidity or Stupidity?

By
Reverend Arthur W. Terminiello
M.A., LL.B.

TWENTY centuries ago a Voice in the Wilderness was raised in the desert about Judea. It was the voice of the prophet John the Baptist who had been sent by God to demand that his nation change its ways before the coming of Christ. In his preaching he dared to confound the tyrants and hypocrites of the world for their wickedness and immorality.

Ere long, however, John was a headless prophet. And the cross of Calvary proved that he had indeed been the "voice of one crying in the wilderness."

NEW VOICES IN THE WILDERNESS

There are today in our nation men who also are trying to call men to repentance—to break away from the paganism and hypocrisy of the present bloody era and prepare for the coming of the kingdom of God. They are facing the mob with their unwanted Gospel of love and justice. For their pains some of them are already—and some will be—headless prophets. May I mention in passing such men as Bishop Von Galen and Pastor Niemoller in Germany, Charles Augustus Lindbergh and Father Coughlin, radio's golden voice—and silent voice? They and hundreds of lesser lights have found that they cannot compete with the millions being spent for the high-powered rabble-rousers let loose upon the unthinking herd by selfish interests.

Because I want the privilege of being numbered among those who did not hesitate to tell the truth on behalf of God and Country, I am taking this opportunity to present these most important, and at the same time the most hushed up, facts in the hope that this little voice in the wilderness may contribute in some small measure to the saving of the blood of some of our boys and the prevention of permanent disaster to our beloved country.

Some would tell us that our subject today does not pertain to religion. But my subject today is: "Thou shalt not kill."

And this is one of the Ten Commandments—the basis of all morality. My subject is "Murder"; and willful, premeditated killing is always murder.

PUBLIC OPINION

I have been speaking to you of the unreasonableness, the beastliness, the hatred of mob behavior. We saw that a crowd may be of any size as long as it comes under the influence of a rabble-rouser and acts with a common aim which is usually the destruction, the extermination of a victim. When the crowd comprises the majority of a nation, we call the crowd attitude, "Public Opinion."

With this thought in mind, let us go back to the days immediately preceding Pearl Harbor. More than 85 per cent of the people of this nation at that time were opposed to going into any foreign war to rescue any nation from the results of its own folly and injustice and hatred. Our hopes were high then for we were told again and again by the President, that this nation would never, never engage in foreign wars. Listen to him on January 3, 1934:

"I have made it clear that the United States cannot take part in political arrangements in Europe."

Listen to him again on October 17, 1935:

"I have pledged myself to do my part in keeping free of those entanglements that move us along the road to war."

And again on October 14, 1936:

"We shun political commitments which might entangle us in foreign wars; we avoid connection with the political activities of the League of Nations."

In his annual message of January 12, 1939, these are his words:

"Calling attention to these facts does not remotely intimate that the Congress or the President have any thought of taking part in another war on European soil."

And on the eve of his re-election to a third term: "Your President says this country is not going to war."

And finally to the mothers of Boston in October, 1940:

"And while I am talking to you, fathers and mothers, I give you one more assurance. I have said this before, but I shall say it again, and again, and again: Your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars."

THE FATEFUL DAY

Then came December 7th, the day which, according to our President, would live forever in infamy. Three thousand eight hundred American boys were offered to the god of war on that day—sacrificed without an opportunity to defend themselves either on the battlefield or in a court of justice.

Public opinion was immediately aroused by hundreds of orators (or should we call them "rabble-rousers"). Within the hour the air waves were filled with patriotic songs, patriotic plays and patriotic speeches—all of them evidently prepared months in advance.

The public forgot entirely the one important fact that Pearl Harbor was not prepared for this attack. No questions were asked; there must be war and vengeance and more bloodshed. The nation was in a stampede in search of victims.

The sensible attitude on that occasion would have been to demand the reason for this catastrophe, to find the parties guilty of such a disaster and if guilty of deliberate lack of preparedness, to punish them with hanging for murder.

But crowds do not act that way. They do not act sensibly. And now that the shock of December 7th is passed, it behooves all of us to stop and think—to discover why Pearl Harbor was unprepared for this attack—to discover which persons were guilty; and if their motives for unpreparedness were not honorable. Then it behooves us to undo the damage as far as possible—to prevent any further loss of life and shedding of blood.

WARNINGS

Unquestionably we were not prepared at Pearl Harbor. The first question which confronts us then is: "Should we have been prepared?"

We certainly were warned of the danger of attack often enough. As early as January 27th of that fateful year, Ambassador Joseph C. Grew warned the White House of the possibility of a sudden and dramatic attack. Again on September 30th of that year, he made a request for conciliation with Japan. Again on November 3rd he sent a cable to the State Department urging us to be prepared.

Our preparedness consisted in putting the construction of Pearl Harbor defenses in the hands of a notorious alien, Hans Wilhelm Rohl, who had been receiving million dollar contracts from the government for years, and had only thought of citizenship in September preceding Pearl Harbor.

Complete details of the Japanese plan were given to Washington on a number of occasions, and as late as October, by the Korean Independence Group. Twice in November of that year, Secretary Hull admitted the danger of attack. Between September and November of that year, the Navy Department advised the White House to evacuate the fleet. And in that same period Lieutenant General Walter C. Short repeatedly asked the War Department for additional men and equipment.

What was the result of all these warnings? Two weeks before the disaster—on November 27th—many defenses were withdrawn from Pearl Harbor by order of the President. At the same time, by order of the War Department, alert No. 3 was changed to alert No. 1. According to our own Secretary Hull, Admiral James E. Richardson, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet, was relieved of his command by the President for failure to obey the President's command to keep the fleet concentrated in Pearl Harbor. The Japanese had insisted upon this.

Admiral Richardson was succeeded by Admiral Husband M. Kimmel, who was willing to obey the orders of his Commander-in-Chief. Both Admiral Kimmel and General Short are now on the shelf for obeying orders, and continue to plead for trial. But now a subservient Congress has postponed the trial. The Admiral has let it be known that when the truth gets out it will "shock the nation."

PREVIOUS EVENTS

Now we come to the tragic events immediately preceding the Pearl Harbor disaster. By order of Harry L. Hopkins, then of the Munitions Assignment Board, two hundred and fifty of the three hundred PBV airplanes destined for Admiral Kimmel, were diverted to Great Britain. This prevented the necessary 360 degree reconnaissance of the Hawaiian Islands Area. On December 6th at 9 p.m., twelve B-24's were received by the Army; but these bombers were discovered to have no defense mechanisms.

Only seventy-two hours before the attack on Pearl Harbor, the Australian Government notified us that the Japanese Fleet was sighted headed for Pearl Harbor. Twenty-four hours before the attack they warned us again. After a delay of eighteen long hours, Washington transmitted the warning to General Short. He received it seven hours after the attack began—after thousands had already paid with their lives for this negligence. It is not for us to say with certainty that this delay was intentional, for that would be murder multiplied by 3800 times. And we know that our Washington officials are all honorable men who would not stoop to murder!

But our sympathies, nevertheless, are there at Pearl Harbor beside the graves of 3800 Americans who perished because warnings were not heeded, because bombers arrived without defense mechanism, because planes were diverted to Britain, because our men were not on the alert and because our fleet was bottled up in an unprotected harbor. Surely, honorable men would not permit this intentionally!

An interesting incident took place on this day of infamy at San Francisco. On the previous night a ship set sail for Singapore. In the morning—before the attack on Pearl Harbor—the passengers awoke to find themselves back in San Francisco and were told to go home with no further explanation. Someone on that ship knew of the danger. But Washington slumbered on.

All these important facts are ignored by the stampeding herd and by the rabble-rousing warmongers. They also ignore the long series of threats which emanated from the White House, of economic sanctions which threatened the Japanese with starvation after we had furnished them for years with the means of retaliating. Also ignored is the fact that several hours before the attack, a Japanese submarine was sunk outside Pearl Harbor. This is not a fantasy. It actually happened according to the report of the Roberts Committee—a committee hand-chosen to whitewash Pearl Harbor.

This sordid story of provoking a sabre-rattling Japan began on July 25, 1941, when Japanese assets were frozen in this country. Let it be remembered that for years Japan had been using these assets to purchase scrap iron which we were urged to sell for patriotic reasons. This continued until five days before Pearl Harbor when, according to The New York Times:

"Japan had been cut off from about 75% of her normal imports. . . . The Kuruso mission had been dispatched because Japan . . . is on the verge of economic collapse."

Speaking of these unreasonable economic sanctions, a prominent Chinese who had been asked about the seriousness of the situation, replied:

"Japan has no choice but to go to war or submit to economic slavery for the rest of her existence."

A curious bit of evidence is found in the article "I Fly for Vengeance" by Lt. Clarence Dickinson of the United States Navy and published in the Saturday Evening Post. In this article, he says:

"On this cruise we sailed from Pearl Harbor on November 28th under absolute war orders. . . ."

We were to shoot down anything we saw in the sky and to bomb anything we saw on the sea."

And this was before Pearl Harbor! Allow me to quote the appraisal of this incident by Congressman Hatton Summers, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee:

"We have been a very foolish people, which has made it possible for . . . politicians to get away with murder. This blaming the Pearl Harbor tragedy on the treachery of the Japs is like the fellow who had been tickling the hind leg of a mule trying to explain his bunged-up condition by blaming the mule for violating his confidence."

What more do we need than the diplomatic blunder of Capt. Oliver Littleton, the British Minister of Production, who said:

"Japan was provoked into attacking the Americans at Pearl Harbor. It is a travesty on history ever to say that America was forced into the war."

Capt. Littleton's later denial means nothing, for a transcription was made of the talk and this speaks for itself.

SHOW ME THE MOTIVE

And so it should be admitted that the disaster of Pearl Harbor was a disaster for this country. Three thousand eight-hundred victims are proof of this. There can be no question but that we were unprepared on December 7th, 1941. Nor can there be any question but that we should have been prepared—that those who were in a position to have prevented this disaster did not do so despite numerous warnings.

The important question now is: Why were we unprepared? Why did the many warnings go unheeded? Why?—Why?—Why?

PLANNED?

It was a famous saying of Sherlock Holmes—"Show me the motive and I'll show you the criminal."

Was there a motive? The President himself is given credit for the wise saying: "Things do not just happen. They are planned that way."

Constitutional provision was to prevent bare majorities and political factions from selling us out to foreign countries. The provision was written back when the British and other foreign countries had plenty of money with which to buy and bribe public officials in America. Our patriot founders figured that it would be next to impossible to buy, bribe, intimidate, coerce or convince two-thirds of the Senate to vote against the best interests of the people.

Nowadays the British and others corrupt our Congress with our own money. We donate it to them in forms of loans they never pay back and then they use some of it as an instrument of corruption.

Every American citizen with blood that is red must do his part to help see to it that the treaty-confirming authority of the Senate is not impaired, dissipated or repealed.

THE WASHINGTON FEUD The International Bankers and money-changers run the show in Washington. Beneath them are the cliques and clans and the factions which vie for authority, social prestige, and political power.

THE CROSS AND THE FLAG

Was Pearl Harbor planned that way? If so, we as American citizens want to know why it was planned that way; and who did the planning? Has anybody through covetousness, with feigned words, made merchandise of our boys?

With regard to Pearl Harbor, there is an interesting book written by Liddell Hart, a British military expert, called "Propaganda in the Next War." In this work he tells us that it would be more difficult to get us into this war than it was to get us into the last one. This was written in 1938.

"The position," he says, "would be considerably eased if Japan were involved and this might and would bring America in without further ado. At any rate, it would be a natural and obvious object of our propagandists to achieve this, just as during the great war they succeeded in embroiling the United States with Germany."

So too, Prime Minister Churchill was just as blunt when he told the House of Commons on February 16, 1942:

"This is what I have dreamed of, aimed at and hoped for, and now it has come to pass."

Pearl Harbor, then, was an answer to the prayers of our Allies. In itself, this dream was not entirely blameworthy on the part of Great Britain for every nation tries to acquire allies in war. The important question is: "Who in this country aided them in their propaganda campaign?" We had in this country at that time in addition to pro-British groups, Union Nowers, and the like, industrialists who stood to gain financially by war; we had bureaucrats who stood to gain power and prestige by war; we had labor agitators who stood to gain by war; we had revolutionary elements who stood to gain by war. They definitely must share the blame. But back of them must have been some power which could make their hopes and dreams a reality.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The above is the first half of a sermon address delivered at the Novena in honor of Our Lady of Victory at the Church of the Visitation, Huntsville, Alabama, and broadcast over a radio network October 22, 1944. The second half of Reverend Terminiello's address will appear in an early issue of The Cross and the Flag, likely the next issue.

At present the leading feud is between the Stalinites and the Anglophiles. Although the poor Russian people, we are informed, are living in a poverty and a privation worse than anything we experienced during the depression, the Russian Embassy in Washington is a center of hilarity and social glamor.

A recent reception given by uniformed representatives of the Russian government, who presided in their gold braid and highly decorated garb, brought out the socially elite who were served their liqueur, champagne, and caviar at four bars on four floors. The celebration was luxurious and hilarious.

Then there is the British clique. Their activities are well known.

The big quarrel in Washington now is: Who will be supreme, the Russian clique or the British clique? This feud can be detected in every activity.

When we have had enough of this stomach-turning alienism, we Americans will take charge and express our determination that no foreign power shall direct the course of our America.

BARMAID FOR "THE 400" CELEBRATION Elsa Maxwell is the name of an oversized woman who has specialized for many years in putting on expensive liquor-drinking parties for a set of international drunks who cruise between Hollywood, New York, London and Paris. A pal of profligates, alcoholics, and wasterlings, she poses as liberal in her ghost-written column which appears in a few newspapers.

When Paris was recaptured by the Allies and liberated from the Germans, Elsa threw a party in Hollywood. It was a profligate and hilarious event. The drunks who attended it cheered to high heaven the bloody victory which had been won by our dear sons.

While this barmaid for "the 400" joined her alcoholic friends in a Hollywood "foxhole" far from the scene of death, pain and bloodshed, sad-faced American soldiers were planting crosses—row on row—Chaplains were administering the last rites to wounded men about to die.

Public figures, including statesmen, who frequent these Maxwell brawls, should be told that their popularity will be brief indeed unless they improve their method of celebrating military victories.

America is being overrun by a set of gilt-edged bar flies on the order of Elsa Maxwell and Walter Winchell. Fox furs, bank rolls and gold-lined saloons where liquor is sold at $1.00 per drink does not improve the appearance of pimps, procurers, and drunks.

"PATTERN FOR REVOLUTION"

The phony clergyman is still up to his old tricks. L. M. Birkhead, the ex-Unitarian preacher who at one time invited Sinclair Lewis to defy God in his pulpit and at one time invited Sally Rand, the fan dancer, to occupy his pulpit in Kansas City, is still serving the purposes of certain short-sighted Jews, who think that the way to save the Jews in America is to make as many enemies as possible among Christians.

When I appeared voluntarily before a Congressional Committee to be questioned concerning my activities, I advised this committee to call in L. M. Birkhead and his mangy crew of hatemongers and question them concerning their activities. Under oath Birkhead and Rex Stout admitted that they had spent thousands of dollars to destroy such men as Henry Ford, Charles Lindbergh, Father Coughlin and Gerald L. K. Smith. They admitted that they had circulated an expensive folder free among 40,000 of my constituents. This folder is entitled "Pattern for Revolution" in which it pretends to prove that I am a diabolical and dangerous revolutionist because I am supposed to have been associated with the following:

- Senator Burton K. Wheeler—Senator Gerald P. Nye—Senator Robert R. Reynolds—Senator David I. Walsh—Clare Hoffman—Congressman Stephen A. Day—Ex-Congressman Martin Sweeney—Congressman Roy Woodruff—Ex-Senator Rush D. Holt—Lawrence Dennis—Carl H. Mote—Joseph P. Kamp—Col. Robert McCormick—Earl Southard—William J. Grace—Mrs. Ernest Lundeen (now married to Senator Rufus Holman)—Charles A. Lindbergh—Huey Long—Eugene Talmadge—Gerald B. Winrod—Harvey Springer—William D. Herrstrom—C. O. Stadskev—Elizabeth Dilling—Mrs. Rosa Farber—Beatrice Knowles—Mrs. David Stanley.

I disagree with several of the above named people on several things, but, after all, is it not silly for these Jew-financed propagandists to try to prove me a revolutionist because I am associated with the above named people?

FACTS ABOUT SIDNEY HILLMAN

At this writing Sidney Hillman is in Europe. He has blown up since the election like a balloon. He is running around over

England and France gloating over his recent triumph in the American elections. I wonder if he is telling our soldiers any of the following facts:

1. About the time he was imprisoned in Russia for his Communist activities.
2. How he became a fugitive from justice in promoting his Marxist program.
3. How he joined the Earl Browder clique which took over the Labor Party in New York.
4. About his money-raising campaigns in behalf of Lenin of Russia.
5. His alleged association with certain New York gangsters.

I hope that Sidney Hillman remains prominent. I hope he talks all the time and in public. I hope Roosevelt appoints him Secretary of Labor. The more we see and hear of Sidney Hillman, the more we will realize the necessity for an America First Party.

COL. McCORMICK GIVES SOUND ADVICE

Col. Robert McCormick, publisher of The Chicago Tribune, is the editor of one of the finest newspapers ever published. Most of the daily newspapers in America have degenerated into advertising agents for department stores. The Chicago Tribune remains a courageous crusading journal in defense of Americanism. It is a Nationalist journal through and through.

Because of his success as a journalist, Mr. McCormick has inspired jealousy among the Lilliputians of the "fourth estate."

In the recent election he was put on the spot. He opposed Dewey in advance of the Convention, but because of the tradition of The Chicago Tribune (as a Republican journal) he went along with the Party and supported Dewey in a half-hearted way.

Recently when interviewed in Montreal, Quebec, Mr. McCormick admitted that Dewey's defeat could be traced to his association with Internationalists. He informed his interviewers that the only way to elect a Republican would be to nominate a Midwestern Nationalist.

SKIDS GREASED

The House of Morgan, British agents, the Union Now crowd, and the America Last clique, are greasing the skids to scoot America into a World Government right after the first of the year. The State Department has been all doctored up with Mr. Stettinius, former president of the United States Steel Corporation, Mr. Clayton, the international cotton broker, and Mr. Rockefeller, the angel of oil.

Things at this writing, however, do not look so good for the Internationalists. They are whistling in the dark, but they know that an international organization will be nothing more or less than stage scenery unless they get an International Police Force, which will be at the disposal of a world delegate. They'll never get it.

DEMobilize QUICK WHEN WAR ENDS

Politicians and bureaucrats are going to try to keep our boys in the army as long as they can because they know when the war is over and our boys come back they will insist on some changes. It is up to us to watch the demobilization program and see to it that when this war is over our boys are brought home immediately. We don't want our sons sent into a series of little side battles and unofficial wars in behalf of the British army, or the extension of the Russian border, or in behalf of the Standard Oil Company, the opium trust, or the Sassoons of Shanghai.

We want our boys home when this war is over, and we don't mean perhaps.

WISE COUNSEL

A priest by the name of Reverend Bernard J. Hubbard has been saying many courageous things. He is known as "the glacier priest" because of his long-time service in Alaska. He hates Communism and has been saying some very pointed things about Russia. Reverend Hubbard does not like the idea of our donating so much material to Russia while she is allied with Japan.

In a speech which he delivered in the Civic Opera House in Chicago recently, Reverend Hubbard said that Russia should grant air bases in Siberia for the use of American flyers attacking Japan.

AFL STANDS PAT

The American Federation of Labor is a good organization. It usually takes a courageous and right stand on most things fundamental. It has never attempted to regiment its organization politically. For instance, in the recent election the head of its largest union, the Carpenters Union, supported Mr. Dewey. The head of its Teamsters Union, also a very large outfit, supported Mr. Roosevelt.

We all recognize that there are some racketeers in labor unions just like there are racketeers in charity, religion, business, etc., but fundamentally the American Federation of Labor is American.

One of the best recommendations for the American Federation of Labor is the fact that it is hated by the Communists. I summarize a few courageous things that have been done by the American Federation of Labor recently.

1. It has always supported the Dies Committee.
2. It indorsed Senator Nye and Congressman Dies for re-election.
3. It refused to join with the Communists in the formation of a world organization to be participated in by the Russian labor unions. It contended that the Russian unions were not free unions, but merely bureaus under Stalin's dictatorship.

Mr. William Green, head of the Federation, is a Christian and a lay-preacher. He is not ashamed of his religion or of his country.

I have always supported organized labor when it has been led by patriotic Americans. Within the CIO there are some noble citizens. The only criticism I have ever levelled against the CIO has been against those pro-Communists who have used the CIO frequently to capture the labor movement for the Reds.

WHITE PAPER—
RED INK

Here it comes! A new flood of British propoganda. Watch the newspapers from now on and you will see frequent references to Britain's terrible financial condition. Recently she issued a White Paper telling how much the war had cost her, how it had bankrupt her, and what a terrible condition she would be in when the war is over. It is a white paper prepared in red ink, figuratively speaking. In other words, the emphasis is on the deficits.

The propoganda from now on is designed to influence our people and our Congress to believe that America cannot be prosperous unless the British Empire is prosperous, and the British Empire cannot be prosperous unless we donate billions and billions more. The fakery in this scheme is to the effect that we are supposed to donate Lend Lease materials needed in the war now, and needed at home after the war with which she can manufacture materials to be sold in competition with the United States. In other words, we are to loan her the materials with which to take business away from ourselves.

How long, oh Lord, how long!

THE CROSS AND THE FLAG

Surely there is some common sense some place to stop this new raid which is being organized by these international looters on our public treasury. Are we to be made the tax slaves of Britain? God forbid!

RADIO SCANDAL

Things are getting pretty smelly as they pertain to the operation of the radio. It is growing increasingly difficult to say anything over the radio that is not in harmony with the political policies in Washington. Now an aroma arises which indicates that some of the rougher elements are actually profiteering on the super authority of the Radio Commission. It is contended that a radio station in New York City was forced to sell its properties to a pro-New Dealer for less than the corporation had been offered by an anti-New Dealer. There was a general impression that had the high bidder been able to secure the properties of the station, the permit to use the wave length would not have been renewed.

O, my dear reader, some day the lid on Washington corruption is going to blow off, and when it does it will be a geyser that will make the Teapot Dome scandal look like a cold cup of coffee.

THE WORD OF GOD SHALL STAND

The Bible is the most precious book on earth. No power, no trouble, no chaotic circumstance seems to be able to destroy the influence of the word of God. As someone well said: "The word of God shall stand though stormed by every foe."

A dispatch out of New York City reveals that the American Bible Society has distributed 4,250,000 volumes of the Scriptures to the armed forces in the last four years. The Bible is still the "best seller" on earth.

If one society has distributed between four and five million copies of the Bible, just imagine the copies that have been distributed when you add to this total the distributions of other similar groups.

PAUPER'S OATH FOR VETERANS

No hero of any war should ever be compelled to take a pauper's oath in order to receive treatment for an illness due to his service in the armed forces. However, we find that veterans who seek admission to veterans' hospitals after they have been mustered out must take a pauper's oath in order to receive treatment without charge.

Congressman Raymond S. Springer of Indiana has introduced a resolution to the effect that this horrible and repulsive practice be ended. Congratulations, Congressman Springer!

PRAY FOR OUR BOYS

The going is tough on the battlefield. We are gaining in Italy by the inch. Our boys in Germany and France have been slowed down to the point where they are standing in pools of their own blood. The cost in casualties for piercing the Siegfried Line will be the bloodiest in history.

The Chinese are on the verge of being knocked out of the war. Even if China stays in, it will only be by the help of the Communists who will insist on taking complete charge. Every American airport in China has been recaptured by the Japs. South Burma is gone. The going in the Philippines is much tougher than anticipated.

We are fighting two awful wars at the same time—on one battlefield 3,000 miles away, and on another battlefield 12,000 miles away. The supply problem is tremendous. The wisdom of man is taxed. The hand of man is limited. If ever there was a time for us to pray for our poor boys on the battlefield, it is now.

JANUARY, 1945

OBNOXIOUS EICHELBERGER, HEAD OF THE AMERICA LAST MOVEMENT. Clark Eichelberger is in the pay of the Internationalists. For years prior to Pearl Harbor he tried to get us into the war, and ever since Pearl Harbor he has been trying to promote us into a Super State which would make us subservient completely to the Internationalists, the British Empire, and the World Government crowd.

He appeared at the Republican Convention. He appeared at the Democratic Convention. He was active in the old committees which were organized to get us into the war quick, including one that was known as "Defend America by Aiding the Allies." That was the committee which said we should take every step short of war, and it was at the time when Mr. Churchill said, "Send us the materials, and we'll do the rest."

Mr. Eichelberger is an intimate friend of the biggest casket maker in America whose name is McKee. He has been able to drum up donations from such individuals as Mr. Cheney, head of the Cheney Silk Corporation, who is now doing pretty well making parachutes. I presume Mr. McKee is even doing better with his caskets than Mr. Cheney is with his parachutes.

Somebody ought to run this Eichelberger back in his hole and find out who is furnishing him with the money to organize people for the purpose of advocating a compromise in our national sovereignty.

He is now promoting a new outfit called United Nations Educational Campaign Committee. Whenever he gets caught overdoing himself in one obnoxious propagandist group, he slips out of it and comes up with a new name and a new address in another one.

Who is this fellow Eichelberger anyway? Who furnishes him the money? What is he trying to accomplish?

ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT MARRIES Again and again and again the Roosevelts divorce and marry . . . divorce and marry . . . divorce and marry . . .

Newspaper reports reveal that Elliott Roosevelt was married for the third time after he had flown with his bride over the Grand Canyon. There were three airplanes in the party. Where did they get the gasoline?

During the recent campaign I had to go all the way to Washington to see and call on the head of the Ration Board in order to get gasoline necessary to make a few trips in Michigan, but Elliott Roosevelt is able to use three airplanes on his wedding trip without any gasoline trouble.

What goes on here? How much longer do we have to put up with this stuff?

WHITE AND RED RUSSIA The late William Allen White was a sort of pink liberal who frequently indulged in flattering remarks concerning Russia. However, he has a son by the name of William L. White who seems to be realistic about the Russian Utopia (?).

When over-active and talkative Eric Johnston, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, visited Russia, he took with him an entourage of so-called open-minded men. This entourage included Mr. William L. White.

Since Mr. White has returned from his Russian tour, he has written a book entitled "Report on the Russians." A condensation of the book appears in the December issue of The Reader's Digest. It certainly contains some very illuminating facts. It should be read by every American, and should be thrown in the teeth of every propagandist who advocates the Russian system for us.

Mr. White admits that there is no unemployment in Russia and perhaps never will be, just as there is no unemployment in the State Penitentiary of Kansas. He discusses the appearance of the best dressed people in Moscow who attended the opera when he was there. He said they were not quite as well dressed and did not look as well fed as a similar number of WPA workers would have looked during the depression. He tells us how the workers are housed near the factory and are not even allowed to leave their home communities without a permit from a commissar or some sort of bureaucrat.

Thanks, Mr. White, for some truth.

THE READER'S DIGEST ON THE GRIDDLE The Reader's Digest has been doing some good work, not in the partisan sense and not in the pro and con sense. It seems to have a way of presenting documented facts concerning important subjects.

Nothing offends a Communist like the truth. He cannot look a fact in the face. His whole program of propaganda, bloodshed, character assassination and exploitation is based on lies, lies and more lies. Consequently, the Communists hate The Reader's Digest. They are out to smear it, destroy it, misrepresent it. Their opposition to this unique little journal is its highest recommendation.

PARADOX There is one lesson that the average citizen has not learned. He cannot understand how Mr. Roosevelt works along with the Communists and the House of Morgan at the same time. There is only one way to explain this seeming paradox and that is with an understanding of the program of the Internationalists.

The Internationalists don't care whether a country is ruled by Republicans, Democrats, or Communists, just so they can control its economic and financial destiny from the top. That is why they hate Nationalists. That is why the international financier will spend millions to stop those of us who are willing to maintain our complete independence from foreign countries and international financiers.

HARRY AND SIDNEY Harry Hopkins is the President's pet. He sits closer to Mr. Roosevelt's ear than any other living man. I am told that he always agrees with Mr. Roosevelt. "Yes! yes! yes!" is his favorite utterance. He is the super "yes-man" of all time.

Mr. Drew Pearson, however, when he spoke in Detroit recently said that Mr. Hopkins' trick was always to say, "Yes," to the President, and then do as he pleased, on the assumption that Mr. Roosevelt would go along. It seems that Mr. Roosevelt is not bothered so much by what happens as he is by those who disagree with him to his face. In conversations and conferences in the White House Mr. Roosevelt's favorite word—the word that sounds like music to his ear—is "Yes."

I am told by people who say they know, that Mr. Hopkins knows how to sing the word "Yes" by note to the tune of Mr. Roosevelt's most favorite melodies. It seems that Mr. Hopkins' ability is not in the realm of recruiting votes; he does nothing to help win elections. Although he got his start as a liberal and was publicized as a radical, he seems to have fallen in pretty well with the British clique. There was some gossip a few months ago about Lord Beaverbrook presenting Mrs. Hopkins with some expensive jewels. We were assured, however, that this had nothing to do with the fact that Mr. Hopkins was administering our Lend Lease program for Britain.

Now comes Sidney Hillman. He has paid for votes, recruited votes, regimented votes, bulldozed labor unions, and organized registrations. He has perhaps been Mr. Roosevelt's most powerful vote "liner-upper." It will be interesting to see who gets the most power from now on—Sidney or Harry. At this writing Harry seems to be the "teacher's pet."

Who cares for vote getters after the election, especially when the Fourth Term will surely be the last term—at least, we hope so.

WHAT ABOUT HENRY WALLACE?

Henry Wallace is the man on the flying trapeze. At this writing there has been provided for him no net in which to land. If Mr. Roosevelt continues to play into the hands of super magnets of international finance, Henry Wallace is liable to find himself "waiting at the church." He has been the perfect New Dealer. He has been the grand and glorious radical. He has advocated giving America to foreigners, but he must be a bit surprised to discover that Mr. Roosevelt plans to give it away via the House of Morgan instead of in milk for the Chinese.

Unless Sidney Hillman is able to sit at the head of the table, and unless Henry Wallace finds a good strong place to light and radiate his International New Dealism, Wallace, Hillman, and others, may either start a new party or attempt to develop a balance-of-power pressure group. It will be interesting to watch these red-hot pinks cool off on Roosevelt and his House of Morgan playmates.

HOLLYWOOD'S WOODROW

Beware of Woodrow Wilson—that is, Hollywood's Woodrow Wilson. A motion picture entitled "Wilson" has been released from Hollywood for the obvious purpose of conditioning America to join a Super State. It is a clever job, a deceitful job, and its propaganda purposes are obvious only to the experienced critic.

I am convinced that the picture, which is filled

NOT dying in order that we may crucify Poland and her neighbors on the cross of atheistic Communism.

Americans awake! Patriots, to your battle stations!

Communism in America must be outlawed, driven out, purged, branded as treason, exposed as atheism. It must be cut out like a cancer, avoided like poison, stepped on like a serpent, isolated like leprosy. It is the curse of mankind. It challenges Christian America. It is the politics of the anti-Christ.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In emphasizing the apparent conflict between Churchill and certain Communist leaders in Europe, the reader must not get the impression that Churchill is a praiseworthy individual concerning international politics. Our reference to Churchill is for the purpose of demonstrating the ruthless determination of the Reds to destroy anyone who stands in their way in their plan to communize the world. Recent dispatches, which have not been completely authenticated, indicate that there may have been a deal between Churchill and Stalin to the effect that Stalin would not interfere with the British in certain zones if the British would agree not to interfere with Stalin in certain zones—such as Poland. If this be the case, it represents the most diabolical deal in human blood the world has ever known. Could it be possible that Churchill has granted Stalin the privilege of shooting down anti-Communist Christians in Poland in return for the privilege of shooting down Communists in Greece? Unfolding events should answer these timely questions.

with historical inaccuracies, exaggerations, and cold-blooded misrepresentations, is the result of a crew of Machiavellian propagandists determined to put the blood of our sons and grandsons at the disposal of the International Bankers.

12 QUESTIONS

In the current issue of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, Drew Pearson, the Washington columnist, discusses numerous questions. We disagree with much of what Mr. Pearson says over the radio and in his daily newspaper column, but in an advertisement announcing the sale of the magazine the publishers raised 12 questions which, in themselves, are very stimulating. I quote the 12 questions:

1. When will Japan collapse?
2. How dead is Isolationism?
3. A business slump next spring?
4. Can Churchill survive an election?
5. Will a "Tito" oust Chiang in China?
6. Where will the Red Army halt?
7. Another civil war for Spain?
8. Will we back London or Moscow?
9. Will Nazi war criminals escape?
10. Will we keep our Pacific bases?
11. Are our oil wells running dry?
12. Are 100-octane flivvers coming?

NO CONCUBINE, SAYS CHIANG

A campaign has been organized to smear Chiang Kai-Shek because of his opposition to Communism. He insists that he has been the victim of gossip. Recently the report was sent out that he was supporting concubines and kept women in his Chinese palace. In a statement released by the General himself a few days before this was written, he confesses his faith in Christ, asserts his love for his wife, Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, and declares that this gossip and scandal concerning his personal life has been merely a program of vilification and scandalization organized by his political enemies.

made Polish Committee will be installed there and will commence preparations for a plebiscite, to be held as soon as the Soviets will occupy all of Poland. The plebiscite will be held without delay in order not to give the Poles a chance to organize some kind of resistance. Russian military and civil men will also vote. The plebiscite will show 99.85 per cent of votes in favor of establishment of a Soviet regime, and for a petition to the Supreme Soviet of All Russia to admit the country into the happy family of the U.S.S.R. The center of Europe will be thus brought under Moscow's complete control.

I have a feeling that a similar procedure will be applied to Yugoslavia. The time is near when Marshal Stalin and Tito will declare King Peter and his government to be criminals and pro-Hitlerites, and a plebiscite will follow.

Anyone who thinks that Great Britain is not aware and afraid of such developments should answer this question: Why was an expeditionary force sent across the Adriatic into Albania, and why is nothing being reported about its activities there? Why did the British land forces in Greece?

Europe is being gradually communized. China is next, India will follow. And plans for communizing the U.S. are not only ready, but are being energetically executed.

that the Soviets did endeavor to help the Poles, proves only that their objective was to take Warsaw after the Germans had crushed the Polish army and nearly demolished the city.

The argument about the Vistula being such a formidable barrier is also of no greater value. Of course, this river is an obstacle. But so was the Dnieper, a much more formidable stream than the Vistula, and also of tremendous importance to the Germans because it protected one of the richest parts of the Ukraine, for the conquest of which Hitler attacked Russia. It will be recalled that Hitler ordered his army to defend that line at all costs. But did the recapture of Kiev take the Russians more than two months?

Finally, if the Soviets could not assist Warsaw when help was urgently needed, why did they refuse to Great Britain and the U. S. their bases from which effective airborne help could have been provided? American and British airplanes had to cover some 1,500 miles with supplies, and could not even land behind Russian lines, only a few miles away, in order to refuel for the return flight to their own bases. It is obvious that under such conditions only meager help could be given.

CITES ALLIED AID TO RUSSIA

We had to supply Russia over thousands of miles of oceans, mountains, and deserts. We have built roads to carry materials for them. No obstacle was considered too great. But Russia could not help Warsaw, only a few miles away, nor did she deem it possible to permit us to do so.

And now General Bor has been called a criminal. He is being accused of having purposely started open warfare to slaughter Warsaw's population.

Assuming that he did make an error of miscalculation and that he did not time correctly the moment of bringing his forces out of hiding; is that a crime? Are all other statesmen and generals infallible? How about the abortive invasion of Norway in 1940 by the British, how about Crete, how about Arnheim and many other similar attempts which ended in failure at great losses of human life? Can we say that all those who planned and executed them are criminals? And how about Marshal Stalin himself who was warned, early in 1941, that Hitler planned to attack Russia but refused to believe? Hitler did attack and within a few months was approaching Moscow, destroying many Russian lives.

General Bor could not ignore Moscow's appeals to start open fighting. If he would have done so Moscow would have immediately accused him of being a Fascist, a Hitlerite, an enemy of Democracy and of liberty. Moscow would have trumpeted around the world that now there cannot be any doubt about the Polish Government-in-Exile helping Hitler. What a chance to discredit all of Poland and of putting her under Soviet heels without the need of talking about a "strong, independent and democratic Poland."

General Bor failed. He failed not because he made an error, but because he was left alone. He has, however, reaffirmed Poland's will to fight for liberty and her determination to remain loyal to the Allies and to all ideals for which we are fighting. It is a new chapter in her long martyrdom for liberty, suffered at the hands of German and Russian oppressors.

The story of Warsaw is one of the greatest tragedies of this war, and, for that matter, of any war. It is not only a terrific defeat for the Poles but for us as well. It is a catastrophe pregnant with most serious consequences because it confirms previous forecasts of Moscow's plans, and proves that they are being followed and executed.

END OF NEGOTIATIONS

Now that the Polish Underground in Warsaw is destroyed and its leader called a criminal, the Polish Government-in-Exile, who appointed him to the Supreme Command of Polish Forces, will also be called a Government of criminals and, therefore, Moscow will not bother to carry on the negotiations commenced with Premier Mikolajczyk in July. What for? This Government has no more support! The Moscow-appointed Polish Committee is the truly democratic representative of the Polish Nation!

The fact that we and Great Britain continue to recognize the Polish Government in London is of no importance to Moscow. Do they have to be friends of our friends? Are we not enemies of their friends? Moscow is interested in American friendship only and exclusively from the viewpoint of Lend Lease. They have nothing in common with us ideologically, least of all in problems of future peace. But they know that now we shall not stop or reduce our help to force them to abandon their policies in Poland. If we have no courage to protest officially the violations of elementary justice, of which Poland is such a tragic victim, but on the contrary, hope that the Soviets will assist us in the establishment of a just and lasting peace, they need not fear our interfering with their plans.

Our policy of appeasement of Russia is already being capitalized by the Nazis. Their propaganda machine begins to convince the Poles that they have been betrayed and that they should make peace with Germany. Are we going to make another Finland out of Poland?

Warsaw will be taken in due time. The Soviet-

Red Plan To Sovietize Europe Seen At Warsaw

Congressman Vito Marcantonio
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Writer Asserts Polish Patriots Were Deliberately Sacrificed; Warns Russia Seeks Expansion

AFTER 63 days of fierce fighting, the Polish Underground in Warsaw surrendered. Everything proceeds according to plan—to the Moscow plan.

Early in August, Prime Minister Mikolajczyk returned from Moscow and shortly thereafter submitted to the Soviet Government a plan of conciliation and co-operation with the Moscow-appointed Polish Committee of National Liberation, headed by Edward Osobka Morawski. Nothing was further heard about this plan. In the meantime, the Russian army was marking time before Warsaw, while Moscow was sabotaging American and British efforts to help the Poles by dropping supplies from airplanes, following their frantic appeals for help. The Germans, using several divisions including armored units, were gradually demolishing the city and have now finished the annihilation of those heroes who, hungry and with practically bare hands, rose to defend their liberty and to assist Russia in her struggle.

The fact that those men and women were able to keep up a fierce fight during more than two months is a marvel of strength, sacrifice and devotion to ideals which deserves at least the same praise and gratitude as the one which we have bestowed upon the Russian armies.

In the meantime the Soviets continued to demand changes in the Polish Government-in-Exile, and particularly the dismissal of General K. Sosnkowski. Anthony Eden, who, according to press reports, was summoned to Quebec chiefly because of the Soviet-Polish situation, placed before the Polish Prime Minister a demand to dismiss General Sosnkowski. It was hoped that this would appease Marshal Stalin and that once the General was out, he would recognize the Polish Government!

General Sosnkowski was removed and replaced by General Bor, the leader of the Underground, the man who ought to be acceptable to the Russians because he fought for them, and because he definitely must have the support of his people if he was able to wage a war against Germany during the five long years of Gestapo rule. But no! General Bor was classified by Moscow among criminals whom they want to punish. This is a splendid example of Soviet treachery; it is an insult thrown in the faces of President Roosevelt and of Prime Minister Churchill. It is an irrefutable proof that Marshal Stalin is fooling us just as Hitler was before the war.

STALIN'S EXPLANATION

Part of our press is, however, rushing to the rescue of Moscow. We find now the following explanations of why Marshal Stalin did not help Warsaw:

1. General Bor started his open warfare too soon;
2. The Russian army, which since the beginning of its summer offensive on June 23, advanced some 325 miles and reached on July 27, a point but 35 miles from Warsaw, could not continue attacking as it had to be regrouped and consolidated;

3. The Vistula is a formidable obstacle which cannot be crushed as promptly as we may think;
4. Russian casualties on the Polish sector of the front prove that the Russians did try to force a crossing of the Vistula and to help Warsaw.

All these excuses, plausible on the surface, are actually sheer nonsense. It is amazing how people can be fooled and accept without a grain of salt statements which insult common sense. But perhaps this is so because the most uncommon thing is "common sense."

General Bor started his action because Moscow requested him to do so. During July the Moscow-controlled so-called "Kosciusko" radio station has made several appeals to the Polish Underground to commence fighting the Germans. From July 27 to July 30 that station repeated its appeals every hour. Prime Minister Mikolajczyk informed personally Foreign Commissar Molotoff, on July 31, that General Bor had received orders to commence action on August 1. Why then did they ask for help, and why did they not stop the Poles if it was known to them that the Russian army was in need of regrouping and of consolidating its gains?

And then how long a time did that army need to consolidate itself? Three hundred twenty-five miles in 5 days without consolidation. Then this Russian army could not advance 35 miles in 60 days! Assuming that there was actually a necessity of stopping the offensive because of technical reasons, then again the question why did the Soviet authorities request the Poles to rise? They certainly knew on July 27 that the advance could not be continued because of the necessity of regrouping the army, and yet at that very moment they insisted on General Bor's assistance.

CONTRADICTIONS IN PROPAGANDA

One of the correspondents claims that Russian casualties on the Warsaw sector prove that they were strongly attacking. This is supposed to show and prove that the Soviets did endeavor to assist the Poles. But how could they have had large casualties if they were compelled to suspend offensive actions in order to regroup? The two arguments are simply contradictory. Soviet propagandists ought to reconcile their statements before releasing them.

Furthermore, casualties of the Russian army do not prove much. The Russians were always lavish in throwing masses of human beings into combat and are known for their disregard of human life. They suffer large casualties even when little is accomplished. We know that the Russians resumed strong action against Warsaw and finally captured the suburb of Praga, on the right bank of the Vistula. But that action was commenced only six weeks after the Polish Underground arose, and when its forces were already decimated. This fact, far from proving
