

'Yes, It's Treasonable,' Anti-Semite Confesses

DW 11/2/44 By Eric Webber

Howard B. Rand, National Commissioner of the anti-Semitic Anglo-Saxon Federation and editor of the pro-fascist magazine "Destiny," has admitted to this reporter that his organization is distributing treasonable and seditious literature.

Rand stated categorically that he subscribed to the principals expounded by the Federation and declared that "Roosevelt is head of a wrecking crew tearing down the structure of this country."

Rand and his organization are attempting to disrupt national unity—undermine confidence in our fighting ally the Soviet Union and disrupt the war effort.

Rand was the principal speaker at a four day regional convention which concluded Saturday night at a mid-town hotel.

The Anglo-Saxon Federation, as exposed by the Daily Worker Saturday, had registered at the hotel under the name of "Kingdom Message Association."

PHONY AUSPICES

The manager of the hotel told this reporter that the organization had misrepresented itself as a "religious group."

Documents in the possession of the Daily Worker show that the Federation is a channel for Berlin's propoganda.

the conclusion of his speech if he was anti-Semitic, Rand smiled and stated that, "being anti-Semitic and anti-Jew are two different things."

When confronted with two prominently displayed pamphlets purchased from the literature table at the convention and asked if he thought they were treasonable and seditious, he declared that they were.

"And as an attorney," this reporter said, "You should certainly know treason and sedition when you see it."

Rand hedged a little and said that he wasn't responsible for literature sold at the convention.

The two pamphlets mentioned are typical of all the literature available there.

"MEIN KAMPF"

One need only read "Mein Kampf" and the parallel line followed by the writers of these books and the Nazi bible will be obvious.

The following quotes come from "True Prosperity." It has both the stamp of the Kingdom Message Association and the Anglo-Saxon Federation.

"In 1932, President Roosevelt promised to 'drive the money changers from the temple,' but to date has been unsuccessful. . . . Perhaps if he would get rid of B. M. Baruch described . . . as Jewish Banker unofficial President of America' and also the latter's associates, he might be more successful."

"Now it is an established fact that the Rothschilds and their associates practically all of whom are International Jews, are those who control International Finance."

"The International Jew has a dark swarthy complexion and the tell-tale of a hook-nose."

These three quotations come from a 16-page booklet expounding the same economic theory and demogogy as "eMin Kampf." It accuses the Jew, through President Roosevelt, of bleeding the people of the United States to the point of ruin.

"This was premeditated," the Anglo-Saxon pamphlet declared. "The farmer had to be ruined and kept ruined if America was to be financially subjugated and eventually bolshevized. Rural banks could not loan farmer's money to farmers; such loans being unsound by decree of the Federal Reserve dictators."

AGAINST HITLER DEFEAT

In the other booklet falsely titled "Hitler's Approaching Doom," and liberally distributed at the Anglo-Saxon Federation convention, we read that the defeat of Hitler will bring only chaos to the world. The booklet argues against that defeat.

"Let us assume," it reads "that the hopes of British and American friends of Russia should be realized and that the Soviet army defeats the Nazi army and eventually in Germany, while British in-
