

From In the Wind, Nation, 8/3/40

One of the key defendants in the Christian Front trial, that ended disastrously for the government was John F. Cassidy. After their acquittal most of the defendants resumed work for the Front; Cassidy is quietly planning to run for Congress from a Brooklyn district. Father Coughlin is preparing to return to the air in time for the campaign.