

DEMAND U. S. PROSECUTE COUGHLIN: Almost 3,000 people gathered at Manhattan Center, 34th St. and Eighth Ave., Wednesday night to protest the recent acquittal of nine members of the "Christian Front" by a federal jury and called for an immediate Department of Justice probe of Father Coughlin. Below, left, Jean Horie, executive secretary of the New York Youth Congress, is shown speaking at the rally. Center and right (below) the Rev. Owen A. Knox, chairman of the Michigan Civil Rights Federation, is shown chatting with Rabbi Moses Miller, president of the Jewish People's Committee, which sponsored the mass meeting. At the right is a general view of the audience which filled the hall. The meeting had been threatened by Coughlin in the columns of his paper, Social Justice. —Daily Worker Photos
