

Father Coughlin <sup>du</sup> Has Nothing to Say <sup>sun</sup> 12/8/41

Royal Oak, Mich., Dec. 8.—(UP)
—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest and once outspoken advocate of isolationism, sent word through his secretary that he had "nothing to say" regarding United States' declaration of war against Japan.