Anti-Semitic Racketeer Invades Religious Field

"God is working through Adolf Hitler to fulfill His scriptures."

Joe Jeffers lets out this scream to climax his hour-and-a-half tirade against the Jews three nights a week in Trinity Auditorium.

Jeffers believes in Adolf Hitler, echoes his prattle about the Aryan race and the duty of keeping it pure. But with this difference— Jeffers pretends that persecution of the Jews is ordered in the Bible, that he and Hitler are the instruments of God, even though Hitler doesn't know it.

Jeffers' racket is to reach the religious people and stir up anti-Semitism among them for his living, since the German-American Bund and the Henry Allens are already bosses in the non-religious territory.

Dressed in a natty double-breasted gray suit, his handkerchief folded into just the right number of points, and his hair shining with pomade, Jeffers hops about the platform reading a verse from the Bible, tracing his theories on maps, and genuflecting and crossing himself in mockery of the Catholics.

"The Pope," Jeffers announces, "has not been sick at all. He just pretended to be to get sympathy for his Church. A friend of mine sees him walking in his garden every day. His sickness is just propaganda."

Jeffers has a lot of "inside stuff" since he went to Europe this summer. He has a secret document dictated by Mussolini telling the Italian program for the Jews. He has a lot of clippings he says he will read over KMPC at 9:30 o'clock every Sunday morning to prove that 95 per cent of American newspaper stories about Germany are lies.

Most of his audience is very gullible. Jeffers holds up a small picture of Adolf Hitler which he says was given to him by Hitler. After the sermon many people gather around the platform to talk to Jeffers, but none ask to see the picture. Your reported picks it up and discovers that it is a postcard.

Jeffers gets in many dirty digs against President Roosevelt.
