

McWilliams Seeks To Balk Attorney

Post 2-17/40

New York, Jan. 6 (INS).—United States Attorney Cahill has launched a campaign against allegedly anti-semitic organizations, it became known today when he was served with a "show cause" order on behalf of Joseph E. McWilliams, head of the "Christian Mobilizers."

McWilliams seeks an injunction to prevent the Federal Government from investigating his activities. The order will be heard Wednesday before Supreme Court Justice Philip McCook, who signed it.

Cahill refused tonight to say whether McWilliams and his organization were the object of any governmental investigation.
