McWilliams Committed to Bellevue ^{P M 9/18/40}

Joseph E. McWilliams, Yorkville rabble rouser and defeated Republican primary candidate for Congress, was committed to the Bellevue Hospital psychopathic ward for observation today by Magistrate Edgar Bromberger in Harlem Court. Described by the court as possessing "a lack of responsibility," the street corner fuehrer was taken away by a policeman and hospital attendant. McWilliams will return Sept. 27th for sentencing on a disorderly conduct charge for making anti-Semitic speeches.
