The Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy and What It Means

by
Dr. Billy James Hargis, Founder-Director
Christian Crusade, Tulsa, Oklahoma

"For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind..." (Hosea 8:7)

The man who volunteered to donate his own blood to the North Vietnamese...the man who attacked the conduct of the war in Vietnam and thus contributed to its being prolonged since our military was denied the honor of a victory over communism in that declared World War III...the man who encouraged teen-agers and college-age youth across the nation to rebel and revolt against the "status quo," i.e., our traditions and Constitutional concepts...the man who added his approval, by his silence, to the mostly untrue charges of police brutality so often raised by his youthful supporters, and thus contributed to the breakdown of law and order in this country and the discrediting of "law enforcement officials"...the man who had refused police protection in Los Angeles County...the man who carried on a personal vendetta against the President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover...the man who had vowed to bring "right-wing dissent" to its knees in humiliating and shameful defeat, Robert F. Kennedy, is dead.

The Political Meaning

And, we are now witnessing the sad spectacle of the various hues of reds, pinks, and "yellow travelers" using the sad and disgraceful assassination of a United States Senator to panic Congress into passing unconstitutional legislation and to create national hysteria that will cause the American people to dutifully submit to the "dictatorship" of the Liberal Establishment with nary a peep of resistance.

Just as the Communists and their allies were able to use the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, in spite of the fact that one of their own killed him...and just as the Communists were able to use the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King to get radical legislation passed and to justify acts of riot and revolution by his so-called followers, in spite of the fact that there are informed opinions that suggest that the Communist Party could well have instigated the assassination of Dr. King...and in spite of the fact that an admitted "anti-American, pro-Communist" by the name of Sirhan Sirhan apparently assassinated Senator Kennedy, the Communists are using this dastardly and shameful act to disarm the American people by the passage of sweeping "anti-gun legislation" that could possibly deny the American people the right to own firearms either to protect themselves in time of a shooting revolution which now seems inevitable, or for other purposes such as sports.

The Two "Bobby Kennedys"

Robert F. Kennedy was a gambler and he lost. He started out his career as an arch conservative, a member of the late Senator Joseph McCarthy's investigating team. He followed his brilliant anti-Communist activities as an associate of Senator McCarthy with his assistance of Senator John McClellan (D-Ark.) whom he aided in investigating corrupt union leaders. From this right-wing position, he suddenly flipped to the opposite approach, coinciding with the bid of his brother for the Democratic nomination as President of the United States. Suddenly, Robert Kennedy dropped his strong, militant, anti-Communist and anti-corrupt union leader stance and moved left of center as champion of both radical causes and radical leaders in the United States. He soon became publicly associated with men with whom he would have had no association, professional or otherwise, prior to this decade. Future historians may well divide Senator Robert Kennedy's adult life into two sections -- one as a "conservative" and the other as a "liberal." The latter part of his life was clearly inconsistent with the earlier part of his professional activities, and vice versa. The Bobby Kennedy who agreed to give blood to the Communists of North Vietnam was not the Bobby Kennedy who pushed for the exposure of the Communists in the State Department during the McCarthy days. They were clearly two different men, or a man who for reasons of his own, political or otherwise, changed his public stance.

The Left-Wing And Assassination

Although this fact has never been mentioned by the left-of-center liberals who control the news departments of ABC-TV, CBS-TV and NBC-TV, no conservative, "right-winger," or Christian anti-Communist has been involved in the assassination of either Senator Robert Kennedy, President John F. Kennedy, or Dr. Martin Luther King. In every instance, either a known Communist, a pro-Communist or a suspected Communist conspiracy is involved in these three assassinations. Our biased, extreme, left-wing, liberal news media that is using this latest tragedy to brainwash the American people into agreeing to the suicide of their own nation has failed to point out that it was not right-wingers or conservatives who participated in these assassinations or instigated the riots which resulted in the killing of hundreds of innocent people, but instead it was supporters of the left. But, I guarantee you this -- you will never convince a Walter Cronkite, a Chet Huntley or a David Brinkley, or an Eric Sevareid that the Communists are behind the assassination of these three national leaders - President Kennedy, Dr. King, and Senator Kennedy, or that the Communists are either the instigators or exploiters of the racial tensions and campus revolutions throughout the United States.

To the entire Liberal Establishment, including their "mouthpieces on television," Sevareid, Huntley, Brinkley, Cronkite, and the like, the right-wingers or anti-Communists or anti-Socialists in the United States are the culprits and the cause of every problem, real and imagined, since the dawn of American history 200 years ago. The sooner the American people understand this lesson, the better off we are going to be. The majority of our national news media is in the hands of the left-wing crowd and every news event will be twisted and slanted to satisfy their ideological whims and convictions. We are not only at war with the Communists in Vietnam...we are at war with the Communists and their intentional or unintentional allies in the United States.

The Truth About Conservatives and Violence

But, let it be said for the conservatives of the United States, there has been no evidence of any lawlessness, violence or disdain of the Ten Commandments, including the commandment "Thou shalt not kill," among the rank and file of the Christian conservatives and the movements that they support in the United States. I know tens of thousands of my supporters throughout the United States and I do not know of a single individual among my Christian friends who would be capable of taking the life of a President, a Negro leader, a United States Senator, or any individual, as far as that is concerned. Furthermore, I have met, over the years, the key leaders of the John Birch Society and the key followers of Dan Smoot, Dean Clarence Manion, Dr. Carl McIntire, and the rest of the conservative spokesmen, and I do not know of a single individual who would either advocate violence or be a party to it.

President Johnson begs for return to law and order and an end to violence. Whether he knows it or not, his remarks can pertain only to the left-wing and liberal crowd from whence the Democrats and liberals received most of their political support this decade. No American can cite a single instance in which a supporter of Christian Crusade, a member of the John Birch Society, or a friend of McIntire, Smoot or Manion, either instigated a riot or burned down a city, such as was done in Detroit, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Kansas City, Harlem, Watts, etc., etc. Neither can any American point to a single instance in which a supporter of Christian Crusade, or any Christian conservative or Christian anti-Communist, attempted to assassinate any public leader with whom they disagreed in the United States. No Christian can ever be involved in acts of terrorism or violence. He ceases to be a Christian if he takes the law into his own hands. Any man who is capable of taking a human life or throwing gasoline bombs at homes and businesses owned by innocent Americans cannot call himself Christian, and in fact, by his very actions, he is anti-Christ. If Jesus Christ taught anything, He taught that His followers should be both law-abiding and obedient to the Ten Commandments, which includes that familiar admonition, "Thou shalt not kill."

Needed: A Nationwide Campaign

As Christian conservatives, we must launch a nationwide campaign to try to offset the anti-conservative and pro-Communist propaganda being fed to us by the liberals on all three major television networks. We must get to the American people and tell them that the Christian conservatives of America stand on two fundamental principles: (1) obey the commandments of God, which include "Thou shalt not kill" and "Thou shalt not covet"; and (2) obey the laws of the land in accordance with the teachings of Christ, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." (Matthew 22:21) Preach it. Talk it. Get the news out to the rank and file of the American people.

Communism Killed -----

A man who was identified not only with communism in the United States but communism in Cuba and the Soviet Union shot and killed the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy. A man who admits in his own diary that he was pro-Communist and anti-United States and whose sympathy for communism is proven in his own writings and activities apparently shot and killed Senator Kennedy. And, according to no less an authority than Truman Capote, even Dr. Martin Luther King's death is the result of a left-wing conspiracy. And, Truman Capote is no right-winger or conservative by any stretch of the imagination.

A close friend of the Kennedy family and sometime companion at social functions in New York City of the President's widow, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Capote is quoted in the May 10, 1968, issue of Time magazine as saying that Dr. Martin Luther King was the victim of an "assassination plot" which was carried out by "leftists," for political gain. Other than the column and a half in the May 10 Time and a single appearance on Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show," these views of a liberal authority on the assassination of King have received little or no publicity. (You may rest assured that if an authority like Truman Capote had suggested that Martin Luther King's assassination was the result of a "right-wing" conspiracy, it would have received front-page publicity in every newspaper in the United States and would have been the lead story in every liberal, mass-circulated, slick magazine.)

The Power of Television

If you have the national news media, especially television, you can slant any news happening to your own political advantage. For illustration, the political liberals have used each of these three assassinations to bring about radical constitutional changes that they desired and which probably would never have been acquired without the emotional issue.

At the time of President John F. Kennedy's assassination, the President's popularity was at an all-time low. The American people were distressed and angered at his handling of the Cuban situation. There was a general feeling that he alone was responsible for our failure to defeat Castro in that abortive invasion. He had been accused of having called off air support for the Cuban Nationalists who were invading their homeland to bring down the Communist regime of Castro. And, there was evidence that in spite of all the publicity given to the alleged withdrawal of rockets from Cuba by the Soviet Union, the rockets were still there. After all, there had been no real inspection of the Russian sea-going vessels to determine whether or not there were rockets under the tarpaulins. In fact, there were those with aerial photographs to prove it to show that rockets were still in place in Cuba, many of them camouflaged and others partly hidden in underground silos, aimed at the heart of America should this cold war become a shooting war. So, President Kennedy's popularity was at an all-time low. At that time, conservative United States Senator from Arizona, Barry Goldwater, was challenging the liberal policies of the Kennedy administration and he was making headway. But, as a result of the assassination of President Kennedy, the conservative Senator was defeated when he ran for the presidency in 1964, and the liberals claimed that no major political party would ever attempt to field a conservative candidate again. In other words, by one terrible act, any possibility of having a conservative president in the United States was eliminated.

Radical Legislation Always Follows Assassination

Prior to the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, extremely radical civil rights legislation had been shelved in Congress because indeed it was too radical. As a result of the assassination of Dr. King, and during the emotional aftermath, Congress passed this radical civil rights bill, plus the first of what I believe to be a long series of antigun laws that will ultimately disarm every individual citizen.

First, Congress cut down the sale of firearms by mail. Now, as a result of the assassination of Senator Kennedy, the liberals would like to completely disarm the individual citizens of this country. Now they are talking about forcing the average American to register his firearms. Tomorrow, after the next assassination (and God forbid there is one), they will demand the confiscation of privately owned firearms in the United States.

I charge that these mouthpieces of the Liberal Establishment on the three television networks during the hours following the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy could not contain their insane desire to indict the "nonliberal" or "antiliberal" American for the assassination. This is sin of the worst type. The Bible teaches us: "Thou shalt not bear false witness." When you falsely accuse all Americans for being responsible for the assassination of a President, a Negro leader, or a United States Senator, you have broken a Divine commandment which says, "Thou shalt not bear false witness."

You Can't Blame Them

Frankly, I don't blame the knowledgeable spokesmen for the Liberal Establishment of the United States for assuming guilt themselves for the assassination of Senator

Kennedy. Their blindness to the Communist threat internally, their refusal to admit that President Kennedy was killed by a Communist or that Martin Luther King could well have been killed as a result of a Communist conspiracy or now that Senator Kennedy was killed by a young pro-Communist, surely marks them as men who are blinded by their own political prejudices and are, therefore, to some extent, guilty of all the heinous crimes coming upon the United States because of their refusal to admit that a Communist danger exists and furthermore their refusal to be a part of a great crusade to exterminate it once and for all. But, the average American is not playing the political game of the Liberal Establishment, nor are they guilty of the double standard of the Liberal Establishment. Nor have they falsely accused conservatives and anti-Communists of being guilty where there is no crime. So, there can be no doubt that the average American has no more to do with the assassination of King or the Kennedys than the angels of Heaven.

And, Senator McCarthy

In my opinion, Senator Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn.) completely discounted his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President when he said repeatedly during the days following Senator Kennedy's assassination that regardless of the man who actually pulled the trigger, "all Americans are to blame." This has now become the theme of the Liberal Establishment. They want all Americans to feel ashamed that we own a house or drive a mortgaged car or that we attend a church and hold religious convictions to be supreme in our lives. They want us to feel ashamed for what they call our religious prejudices, our material opulence, and our nationalist concepts. It is the determined drive of the Liberal Establishment in the United States to create a guilt complex among Americans in this decade and to implant in the hearts of every one of us a guilt phobia that can only be atoned for by an adherence to internationalist, Marxist concepts that would eradicate once and for all nationalism, private ownership of property, religious convictions and individualism. Eric Sevareid, in his commentary on CBS Television on the evening of Senator Kennedy's assassination, said as much when he suggested that we had arrived at a time when individual freedom or individual liberty is not as important as it had been.

The attack is on the freedom of the individual. The intent of the Liberal Establishment is to make every American over into a mere number in a collective society which guarantees no individual freedom but where all are completely dependent upon the state, not only for security from the cradle to the grave, but also to make our decisions and to chart our future course.

Needed: A Political Victory

I have never been so convinced in my life as I am today that the only thing that will help America is the defeat of these political proponents of liberalism in the elections of November, 1968. We will continue to have assassinations of political leaders and riots in our cities and insurrection on college campuses until we get an administration in Washington that will get tough with the Communist conspiracy internally and enforce the law! You will never see the day that a liberal politician or liberal administration will enforce the law against one of their own. Oh, they would gladly enforce the law against right-wingers or anti-Communists, or even corrupt the law to prosecute these political and philosophical opponents, but they will not enforce the law against their own or those whose political support is definitely needed for their own future political schemes. We need an administration in Washington, D. C., that will strengthen all state, county and city law enforcement officials. We need an administration that respects the law, opposes lawlessness in any form, including its guiding philosophy of civil disobedience. We need to get tough with lawbreakers...we need to clamp down on such shameful scenes as this anarchist march on Washington. Never in the history of our nation's capital have our leaders been subjected to such contempt and indignities as they are now at the hands of these anarchists who make demands that are impossible to fulfill, spurred on by political liberals who promise them the sun, the moon, and all the stars in return for their vote.

Concerning the Alleged Assassin

Now, concerning the alleged assassin, Sirhan Sirhan, of Pasadena, California. According to eyewitnesses, this young man, perhaps 24 years of age, assassinated Robert Kennedy. According to the Associated Press report which appeared in our Tulsa Daily World of June 6, Sirhan was a pro-Communist and anti-American, definitely beyond question a left-winger. This is the article as it appeared in our Tulsa paper:

"[Mayor Sam] Yorty, in a copyrighted interview with Radio News International, said the notebook [which was actually a diary maintained by Sirhan written in both English and Arabic] was recovered from Sirhan's rooms with his family's permission.

"The notebook appeared to have been by Sirhan Sirhan,' the mayor said.

"There's much scribbling, repeated phrases, many references to Sen. Robert Kennedy, even Ambassador Arthur Goldberg,' Yorty said.

"They're not very clear, but there's a direct reference to the necessity to assassinate Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968.

"I don't know why. He does a lot of writing, pro-Communist and anticapitalist, anti-United States. Evidently he was quite pro-Arab in the Arab-Israeli matter. He has "Long live Nasser" written in there..."

The Inconsistent Liberal

Now, again, we see a failure in the thinking and actions of the liberal politicians in this country. More and more spokesmen of the Liberal Establishment had been arguing that we should send foreign aid to Nasser of Egypt. Nasser has long been the darling of the American liberals - a friendship which was only interrupted by the Arab-Israeli war a year ago. We have printed editorials elsewhere from such liberal newspapers as the Denver Post advocating that we should again get behind Nasser of Egypt in foreign aid. This liberal foreign policy included the destruction of the anti-Soviet and pro-American friendship of King Hussein of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan in favor of the more militant, pro-Communist and outright Socialist position of Egyptian dictator Nasser. Because of our failure to help King Hussein of Jordan, who had been a staunch anti-Communist and pro-American, Jordan is rapidly moving in the Soviet orbit while we are concentrating our acts of friendship on the out and out Communist and Socialist, Nasser. Again I say that this is a suicidal inconsistency on the part of the Liberal Establishment. They were determined to renew United States' friendship with Nasser, in spite of the fact that he has made his bed with the Communists of the Soviet Union. In recent weeks there have been even anti-Kennedy editorials in Cairo and other Egyptian newspapers which have been mentioned by the American news media.

Nasser opposed Senator Robert Kennedy because Kennedy favored aid to Israel. Kennedy held the natural position of a Senator from New York State, the state with the largest Jewish population in the United States.

Another interesting observation is that Senator Kennedy could well have inflamed Sirhan to commit this act during the so-called debate with Senator McCarthy which appeared on the ABC television network on the Saturday evening prior to his assassination in Los Angeles. Even the Associated Press, in an article printed in our Tulsa Daily World of June 6, reports that the 24-year-old pro-Nasser and pro-Communist alleged assassin could well have been inflamed "by a statement from Senator Robert Kennedy during a televised campaign debate Saturday night, said a New York committee on American-Arab relations. During the debate with McCarthy, Kennedy said the United States should supply jets to Israel. 'It is this disrespect for the human Arab persons which brings about this kind of violence,' said Dr. Mohammad T. Mehdi, secretary-general of the Action Committee on American-Arab Relations." (The headline in our

Tulsa Daily World over this AP release was "Bitter Young Anti-Semite Held in RFK Shooting. How in the world an Arab can be an anti-Semite, they didn't explain. Since both Arabs and Jews are Semites, how can a natural-born Arab be anti-Semite?"

An Enlightening Statement from Mayor Yorty

In a nationally televised press conference on Thursday, June 6, at 1:00 p.m., Mayor Sam Yorty, whom I would classify as the most outstanding anti-Communist Democrat mayor in the United States, stated that a closer reading of the diary of Sirhan Sirhan and the notes which were on his person at the time of his apprehension proved that he was sympathetic to communism, and that his motivation for killing Senator Kennedy was his Communist sympathies. Mayor Yorty also pointed out that Sirhan Sirhan's automobile was recently seen at a meeting of the W.E.B. Dubois Clubs, a militant Communist youth organization in this country. But, even after the revelation of these most interesting facts, CBS newsmen tried to discredit Mayor Yorty's revelations by suggesting that he had no proof of his accusations, or at least the proof had not been seen by the news-

There is little doubt in my mind that the Communists killed Senator Kennedy just as they did President Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. But, the liberal news media (never forget the liberals who appear on national television are by far the most effective brainwashers and mindbenders in the nation since they reach the majority of the people) will play down the role of communism in the assassination of the New York Senator in an effort to fix the blame on all Americans.

At this early stage I would suggest that probably the Democrats will field two candidates - Hubert H. Humphrey for President and probably Senator Edward Kennedy for Vice President.

Senator McCarthy is quoted by the Associated Press in our Tulsa Daily World for June 6 as saying, "The nation... bears... a burden of guilt" for the shooting of Kennedy. McCarthy is one of the most articulate spokesmen for the "left of center" political establishment and political philosophy in this decade. And, as such, he is completely blinded to any possibility that a Communist might be involved in the assassination of Senator Kennedy.

Senator Kennedy Rejected Police Protection

Another revelation which appeared in our June 6 Tulsa Daily World, also an AP release, was to the effect that Police Chief Thomas Reddin of Los Angeles said that Senator Kennedy had "twice been offered and twice declined Los Angeles police protection during his campaign." Now, this apparently is a factual statement.

A few days prior to his assassination, Senator Kennedy not only refused police protection in Fresno, California, where he was campaigning for the top spot in the California primary, but his aides actually verbally attacked the Police Chief and the uniformed patrolmen in Fresno who offered to protect his life. This is the article which appeared in the highly respected publication, Human Events, of May 18, 1968, which is a condensed version of a longer article which appeared in the daily newspaper in Fresno, California, regarding the abuse that the Fresno policemen suffered at the hands of Kennedy's entourage:

"Bobby Kennedy campaigned in Indiana on the theme that he would bring 'law and order' to the United States, but out in Fresno the police don't think Bobby means what he says.

"After a hassle developed between Fresno Police Chief H. R. Morton and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy aides recently, Morton withdrew all policemen from Kennedy functions, claiming 'I have never at any time encountered such a group of ill-mannered, uncouth and deliberately obnoxious people anywhere as those on Sen. Kennedy's staff.'

"Morton says he withdrew the men following requests from Kennedy aides who declared, 'the senator does not like policemen and does not like blue uniforms.'"

"Morton was on hand for Kennedy's arrival with 35 uniformed officers on overtime, 32 reserve policemen, numerous plainclothes officers and the entire 16-man motorcycle squad. Before the men were withdrawn, Morton said several potentially dangerous situations arose and his men took action to prevent trouble or injury to the thousands of spectators.

"'During the entire four hours,' said Morton, 'officers were subjected to constant abuse and filthy language by advance men of Kennedy's staff. I received the same treatment.'

"At one point, Morton added, as the Kennedy party was driving through the crowd, a boy about 12 was knocked to the ground by the vehicle 'and no attempt was made by any member of Kennedy's staff to determine his injuries, which fortunately proved minor.'"

As stated earlier, Senator Kennedy had sought the support of the liberal crowd in the United States and an essential part of the liberal philosophy is the antilaw enforcement attitude, which is the underlying reason for the "police brutality" charges.

Again I am reminded of a Scripture, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Galatians 6:7) Senator Kennedy's refusal to have police protection would endear him to the liberal college students, but it was foolish, to say the least. Had he had police protection in Los Angeles, he would probably be alive today.

This Commission of President Johnson's

Another interesting development - shortly after the shooting of Senator Kennedy, President Johnson announced that he was setting up a committee of known political liberals to study "the causes of violence," headed by Milton Eisenhower, former President of Johns Hopkins University. Frankly, I think this commission is a waste of money. There are two primary causes for violence in the United States today - sin and communism. The Communists are determined to overthrow this country and they must create havoc within in order to accomplish it. If they can turn race against race and create internal strife and civil war, they will be able to walk in and take over our country with little effort, during a time of internal strife and revolution. This has long been their stated aim. The Communists have either created or exploited every single racial issue in the United States as well as the college issue.

Furthermore, now it has been proven that the Communists and their sympathizers were definitely involved in at least two of the three assassinations of public officials in recent years, and possibly all three.

Communism is inside our country and is working to overthrow our government and I have no doubt that some of the men who pose as spokesmen for the Liberal Establishment are a conscious part of the Communist conspiracy. Others are just dumb, or as the Communists would call them, "useful idiots." They are carrying out the Communist orders without even being aware of it by their refusal to recognize that there is a Communist threat internally.

The other problem in our country is sin. Our nation has gotten away from New Testament morality and the old-fashioned faith and, as a result, we are in the throes of a revolution.

We are sorry for the Kennedy family. We have prayed for them and will continue to do so. We regret the assassination of Senator Kennedy. We sympathize with his elderly parents but we also sympathize with the American people who are the victims of massive brainwashing such as this world has never seen. May God awaken us before it is too late, or the Communists will next assassinate a nation -- ours!
