
Dies' Daily Diatribe

Rep. Martin Dies (D., Tex.), at Jasper, Tex., charged that Attorney General Francis Biddle was "trying to evade his responsibility" when he held that the Hatch Act could not be used by the Justice Dept. to prosecute Government employees who aided the CIO Political Action Committee.

"This is not satisfactory to me," said Dies, announcing that his committee would go into the matter itself at public hearings in Washington.
