

father Coughlan—but, EX-Ambassador Joseph Kennedy is still going in high.

Secretary of the Navy, Frank Knox, now refers to FDR as “my boss”—he endorses whatever his “boss” stands for, RIGHT OR WRONG.”

Dr. Gerald B. Winrod, editor of the Defender Magazine in Wichita, boarded the Clipper Air-penetrator Saturday nite for a special mission to Portorico.

From one to 5,000 more regular annual subscribers now would greatly stimulate Publicity's anti-war campaign; how many can YOU add to our mounting list? Get busy!

Is this a code message or is the editor of "Publicity" a bit wacky?

There are unsubstantiated rumors of a fascist conclave in strategically important Puerto Rico. Catholic-hating amounts to a religion with renegade preacher Winrod.
