Pardon Board Splits On Valtin Deportation

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.-The State Advisory Pardon Board was split two votes to two over the application of Jan Valtin (Richard Krebs) for a pardon for assault with a deadly weapon.

Krebs is seeking the pardon to block government action to deport him.

of the Night" was deported in 1929 year of research. She asserted that to Germany after serving three not only had she performed many years in San Quentin prison for services for him while he was writassaulting a Los Angeles shopkeeper. ing the book, such as typing, re-Nine years later he jumped ship in search and discussions, but that she New York and remained in this had advanced him money for living country. A seamen's organization has charged Valtn with being a should have received $31,634. member of the Nazl Gestapo and Valtin himself admitted such membership in his book, which was a concoction of wild attacks on the Soviet Union.

The Pardon Board was split due to the absence of one member. Governor Culbert Olson, to whom the application now returns, said he was studying material on the case preparatory to issuing his recommendation.

RESEARCH AID ASKS $50,000

Eleanor Jacob is suing Jan Valtin, under his real name of Richard J. H. Krebs, for $50,000.

Miss Jacob declared that Valtin had not paid her the 20 per cent of the proceeds of his book "Out of the

Valtin, notorious author of "Out Night" which he promised for her

•,