ANDOVER, N. J., July 4.—Three leaders of the pro-Nazi German-American Bund were yesterday arrested and placed on $1,000 bail each while participating in the organization's Camp Nordland holiday celebration.

Charged with encouraging utterances tending to incite riot, and sanctioning the wearing of uniforms of a "foreign power" on camp grounds, the three are William Kunze, national leader; August Klappert, leader of the New Jersey division and Mathias Kohler, N. J. treasurer of the Bund.

Another warrant was issued by New Jersey authorities for Leonard D. Clark, writer for the Deutsche Weckruf und Beobachter, New York Nazi paper.
