

Bund May Lose Camp ^{PA 7/12/40}

The latest move in the German-American Bund split, reported in PM July 12, is possible loss of control of Camp Siegfried, Yaphank, L. I., by the Bund. The German-American Settlement League, owner of the camp, obtained a court order requiring three Bund officials to show cause in Queens Supreme Court next Monday why they should not turn over all records and give a financial accounting to the League.
