TO SEEK NEW BUND TRIAL

Six Convicted in Suffolk to File Application on Friday

RIVERHEAD, L. I., July 19.—Notice was served upon Assistant District Attorney Lindsay R. Henry of Suffolk County today that representatives of the German-American Settlement League and its six officers would appear before County Judge L. Barron Hill in Huntington on Friday to apply for a new trial in connection with their conviction last week of violation of the State Civil Rights Law.

The papers were handed to Mr. Henry, who prosecuted the case, by Joseph Lonardo of Queens, a defense attorney. Heavy fines were imposed on all the defendants and one also was sentenced to a year's imprisonment after they were convicted by a jury in Judge Hill's court here. The application will be made in Huntington because Judge Hill will be in Special Term there on Friday.
