Chicago Street Fights.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (A. P.)—Several police squads broke up a free-for-all fight last night between German-American Bund members and a crowd of anti-Nazi demonstrators.

The demonstrators stormed a meeting hall in the heart of the German district. The police cleared the hall, but fights continued in the street until reserve officers arrived.

The meeting had been called by Dr. Homer Maerz, president of the newly formed German-American alliance. He had promised to explain what happened last Sunday at another meeting broken up by anti-Nazis.

The police estimated the crowd in the hall at 300 and the demonstrators outside at 1,000.
