Work at German Exhibit

Members of Exhibition Employees Local 17374 and of the Theatrical Managers, Agents and Treasurers Union have been ordered not to work for the German Exposition, which is scheduled to open tomorrow in Grand Central Palace, William Collins, New York representative of the American Federation of Labor, announced yesterday.

The exposition, which is to continue through Dec. 23, is under the auspices of the German-American Business League, an adjunct of the pro-Nazi German-American Bund.
James Wheeler-Hill, executive secretary of the bund, said the organization had "heard nothing about it," but if it proved true, "we will find a way."
