

Admits Heading 'U. S. Fascists'

The White Shirt Crusaders, which he heads, are "American Fascists" and advocate violence when and if necessary to achieve their aims, George W. Christians, saluting, above, is said to have admitted. The Crusaders were charged by a Kansas City minister with sending him a threatening letter. The pastor protested to President Roosevelt, declaring he had proof that the Crusaders plotted government overthrow.