

FASCIST FORCES ORGANIZE

There are more than 65 openly fascist or potentially fascist organizations in the U. S. in addition to the American Liberty League, Coughlin's Union for Social Justice, the American Legion, The D.A.R., etc. A few typical organizations described in the Labor Fact Book 111 (Labor Research Assn) are:

American Labor Foundation: Stated purpose to "outlaw and prohibit" trade unions and to promote "employees' associations" (company unions). Program openly favors Italian and German fascist policy on trade unions.

American Vigilant Intelligence Federation, Inc.: Founded 1919. Among other anti-radical and anti-Semitic activities, publishes a secret news service on labor activities. Harry A. Jung, general manager, cooperates with spies of U.S. Steel Corp.

American Women, Inc. (Los Angeles): Formed Feb. 1935. Supports Hearst red-baiting campaigns. Conducts anti-labor drives among women's clubs, Y.W.C.A.'s etc. Members are being taught to shoot by Chief of Police Davis.

American Security League. (Wash. D. C.): Anti-labor. Seeks to keep out "radical" expressions from schools and textbooks. Supports National Office of American Legion in anti-labor legislative campaign.

Committee for the Nation. (N.Y.C.): Advocates inflation "to rebuild price and purchasing power." Includes over 2000 industrialists, bankers, and wealthy farmers. At National Monetary Conference (Jan, 1935) entered into agreement with Coughlin's "National Union".

The Elks: Founded in 1868 as a fraternal order. Recently dedicated itself to anti-labor activities; supports Chamber of Commerce in anti-labor recommendations and bills.

K.K.K.: Revived 1934 "to go after radicals wherever found". Supports anti-radical legislation. Agitates against radical teaching in state-supported colleges.

National Americanization League (N.Y.C.): In addition to anti-labor, anti-radical program, supports the Dies Deportation Bill. Aims to copy California Vigilante organization. Claims 7,000 members.

Order of 176: Secretly organized March, 1934 for espionage and propaganda against Jews and radicals. Cooperates with Nazi agents in distributing anti-Semitic propaganda.

United American Patriots: Vigilance society active in New Mexico. Instrumental in kidnapping and beating of attorney Levinson and Robert Minor of Defense Committee.
