Dear Dr. Birkhead,

I have just returned to town after a trip on a story, hence I haven't been able to answer your letter of June 27 sooner.

Once again I hope to be in New York soon and I'll look you up. My job now is to expose unexposed honest-to-goodness spies, which I'm finding tough.

Thanks a lot for your kindness in sending me the copies of the Gestapo pamphlet. They're swell, and the people to whom I've given some of the copies say so, too.

Yours truly

Harold Weisberg
