NAZI BUND MEMBER HELD IN FORGERY

Contractor Accused of Signing Dead Man's Name

Henry Wolfgang, Nazi Bund and German-American Settlement League member, is under arrest today charged with forging a dead man's name to work sheets on a city contracting job.

Wolfgang is accused of signing the name of L. C. Becker hundreds of times since Becker's death in 1931. Becker, a licensed electrician, was at one time in the employ of Wolfgang, a contractor. Wolfgang is the thirty-seventh person arrested in a current investigation into the Queens building racket.

He was tried last year as one of the operators of the Nazi Camp Siegfried, in Yaphank, L. I. Found guilty of violating the State civil rights law, he was later freed by the Appellate Division.
