On Charge of Perjury
Camp Incorporator Accused in Building Trades Inquiry

Henry Wolfgang, of 1713 Stephen Street, Ridgewood, Queens, described by Albert E. Short, Assistant District Attorney, as an incorporator of the German-American Bund's Camp Siegfried, at Yaphank, L. I., was held in $1,000 bail yesterday in Queens Felony Court on his plea of not guilty to a charge of perjury in obtaining permits to do electrical work.

Wolfgang was alleged to have signed the name of a deceased electrician to an application of Dec. 31, 1937. He was arrested in the investigation into various aspects of racketeering in building trades which Mr. Short is conducting.
