

'Super-Patriot Pal' Heads Patrol Corps

'Tablet' Approves Appointment
Of Cross in Bronx PM 3/24/42

A recent issue of the Tablet, Brooklyn diocesan paper, expressed great satisfaction over the appointment by Mayor La Guardia of Jeremiah F. Cross to the Bronx command of the City Patrol Corps.

Cross, long active in American Legion ranks, has a record of friendly association with some of the "super-patriot" boys.

On May 6, 1939, he presided at a meeting of the American Defense Society at the Hotel Astor and introduced Sen. Reynolds, one of our more flamboyant Fascist-minded nightshirthers.

Present to applaud Reynolds's talk, in which he advised America to forget about Europe, was Fritz Kuhn, jailed head of the German-American Bund.

Cross later expressed surprise at Kuhn's presence.

On Nov. 29, 1939, Cross shared speaking honors at a Madison Sq. rally with Martin Dies; Fascist-minded Merwin K. Hart, and George U. Harvey, defender of the Christian Front.—L. C., Jr.
