

July 28, 1939.

Dear Dave:

From your wire we deduce that the Doctor does not want too much publicity in Liberation.

¶ The July 21st issue with one of his speeches in it -- you've seen it because I mailed you copy 1st class mail -- had already been mailed to the Senators and Congressmen. Otherwise, we would have held up the mailing.

¶ Sorry, but it is too late now. Because we printed it, I supposed the green light was showing and in fact I never questioned it at all.

¶ Herewith money order for $5.

Yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Ramsey", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.