

WINCHELL STICKS HIS CHIN OUT

MAY 19 1939

¶ We exposed Winchell's insolence in sending the book, "Private Armies," by the Communist writer, John L. Spivak, in Liberation, by printing Congressman Shafer's remarks about it.

¶ Winchell, in one of his early March columns, let out a patriotic snort -- Representative Shafer had said:

¶ "In fact, I believe we should get all the facts as to what Nazis, Communists, and all other un-American organizations are doing in America."

¶ Here's Winchell's snort in reply:

¶ "Well, by golly, that the only reason we sent the book to Congress! And if anybody can suggest a book exposing Communists, let us know it so we can send that along to Congress, also! . . . Mrs. Dilling's Red Network has already been nationally exploited. . . . Name me some others -- giving names, address and alleged facts such as Secret Armies attempts to reveal. . . . We don't want to ~~hahpnhhantionmcommsentzanduhum~~ ^{just} the time of the Congress with any book that won't help them to smoke out the bums who are trying to overthrow this government."

¶ And Winchell still rambles on -- but we suggest to the patriotic Mr. ~~Smith~~ Winchell:

¶ The World Hoax, by Ernest F. Elmhurst; what Every Congressman Should Know, Jews Say So!

¶ And then, what about The Speech of Major-General Moseley, at Philadelphia, Tuesday, March 28, 1939?

¶ These are all Felley Publications. Will Mr. Winchell grasp his opportunity?
