The Justice Department last night ordered the release of three individuals who had been held for allegedly giving voice to seditious statements.

Those released were ~~Herbert D. Kissenger~~, held by Federal authorities in Kansas City, Mo., and Robert Noble and ~~Raymond Jones~~, held in Los Angeles.

They were being detained under the statute that provides a 20-year prison term and a $10,000 fine for wilfully spreading false reports that might obstruct the national defense.
