

Artist Quits C of C To Protest Defeatism

Special Correspondence

PM 8144
CLEVELAND, Aug. 14.—Maurice I. Rappaport, industrial artist, resigned from the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce yesterday because the Chamber's board of directors failed to repudiate the "defeatist views" of James F. Lincoln, president of the organization.

Lincoln, in a letter to a newspaper, said that Americans "had best change our attitude to that of living at peace with a Germany dominant in Europe and a Japan dominant in Asia."