

7
Prob 1938

Pearson and Allen

Merry-Go-Round

FBI agents have reported to Washington that at a recent meeting of the Los Angeles unit of "Vindicators Association, Inc., organized by Senator Reynolds, there were present representatives of the Bund, Father Coughlin's "Actioneers," and the "Silver Shirts." One of the leaders of the L. A. Vindicators is G. O. Hagberg, author of an article in The American Vindicator, Reynolds' weekly, warmly defending the Bund... Arkansas' two young rookie Congressmen, Clyde Ellis and D. D. Terry, played a leading role in the coup that upped the flood control appropriation from $110,000,000 to $135,000,000...
(Distributed by United Feature Syndicate.)

F. D. R. feels "he shouldn't be asked to run again" — but is there any other New Deal Democrat who can win? For the inside story on "third term" hullabaloo read Merry-Go-Round tomorrow.