'Red-Squad' Friendship Is Boast of W. D. Pelley

PORTLAND, Feb. 14. — William Dudley Pelley, weird and mystical fascist leader of the Pacific Northwest, boasts in the current issue of his "The New Liberation" that he is a close personal friend of Police "Red Squad" chief detective, Walter O'Dale.

O'Dale leads the anti-labor activities of the police here, and mulcted Portland city treasury of thousands of dollars to print the "Red list" which included so many respectable citizens' names that Portland became the laughing stock of the nation.

Pelley recently spoke in Portland under O'Dale's protection. In that speech Pelley called Roosevelt "Jew Rosenfeld" and made thinly disguised incitements to assassination.
