WHAT is going on down in Asheville, North Carolina. That the LaFollette Committee of the Senate, the Dies Committee in the House, the spokesmen for the Administration, the "liberal" newspapers and the radical radio broadcasters, are making such a fuss about?

Not a week passes that some periodical or politician doesn't do his screaming against a man named Pelley.

Pelley lives down in Asheville, North Carolina, where he runs a publishing house.

He is likewise the executive head of a national organization called THE SILVERSHIRT LEGION OF AMERICA.

The radicals of the nation—particularly the Jewish radicals—foam at the lips at the mention of Pelley, the Pelley Publications, THE SILVERSHIRT LEGION OF AMERICA.

Why are they so exercised?

How can one man kick up such a shindy?

Here is the brief story of Pelley, his publications, and the organization which he founded in 1933 . . .

Who Pelley Is

PELLEY is a former newspaper publisher and novelist, 48 years old, who back in 1917 was sent out to the Orient by the Methodist Centenary to make a survey of Foreign Missions. While engaged in this errand, the Siberian Intervention was decided upon. Pelley got into khaki and went up into Siberian Russia. For nearly a year he traveled behind the Allied battle-lines as special survey official for the International Y. M. C. A.

This job took him all over Siberia at a time when Bolshevism was first engaging the world's attention. He saw Communism strike Russia from a first-hand observation.

Returning to America in 1919, he resumed his newspaper publishing. But the vicissitudes of the next ten years finally took him to Washington, D. C. There he formed contacts with some of the biggest men in the Hoover Administration. His social friends included the Secret Service attaches of half a dozen foreign governments.

Pelley began to be horrified when he learned that many of the worst world scoundrels—whose names had been of daily anathema among his war associates in Siberia—were turning up here in the United States and insidiously laying schemes to sovietize this country.

When the panic of 1929 hit the nation, and Hoover was succeeded by Roosevelt, Pelley was further staggered to behold these same international renegades gaining official positions in the heart of our government. Or, if they did not gain official positions in the heart of our government, become attaches and advisers to men who did hold them. The American people were utterly incredulous that any such skullduggery could possibly be afoot.

He compared notes with secret service men quite as frantic as himself. He had access to many of their reports.

Week by week and month by month, with his facilities for gaining information, he came to realize that unless someone suddenly stood up and did something about this menace, the United States was slated to go the bloody Communistic way of Russia, Hungary, Spain, and pre-Hitler Germany. So Pelley became almost the first man in this country, as the NRA came in, to stand out alone and attempt to warn his fellow countrymen that a vast plot was afoot, engineered from overseas, to seize the Democratic Party, the Congress, and the government, and achieve by secret and tricky legislation the same regimentation of free American citizens that had been effected in Russia by starvation and machineguns.

Liberation Is Begun

MOVING from Washington, D. C., to Asheville, N. C., where better printing facilities were available, Pelley began the publishing of a 12-page weekly journal. It was called Liberation.

The first issue of Liberation came out at about the time of the infamous Bank Holiday.

The Blue Buzzard was then bedaubing all American shop windows. Roosevelt was being acclaimed the Transcendent Magician who would restore the country to normal in a twelve-month ❀ ❀

Congress was hysterically passing bills for stupendous Relief—on government finances.

Everyone was saying: "Give Roosevelt a chance! Let's see if his policies have any merit."

Pelley had ways of knowing that the Roosevelt Policies were being propounded by the same minority bloc of radicals who had financed the revolution whose horror-scenes he had lived through in Russia.

Roosevelt himself, born in the lap of luxury, who never made a payroll in his life, was vain, erratic, and a sick-man before he ever went into the White House. He was exactly the kind of stooge the Overseas Gang required to work their program of spoliation through the Congress.

NRA seemed to be a heroic measure to cope with the Depression, but under cover of the various Codes it merely put the Overseas Gang in possession of the most intimate details of Gentile business, both big and little.

At the time the Supreme Court decision stopped that nonsense, Jews were going about Washington like a locust-swarm bragging: "We'll have every Gentile out of business within two years!"

Over three hundred highly paid publicity experts, New-Deal press agents on government money, were flooding the nation's newspapers with blatt, blither, and blah, on the marvelous things the New-Deal was going to do for the nation.

All of them boiled down to this: "We propose to spend your money till you haven't got any more, then it'll be no difficulty to get you to agree to a revolution." Pelley determined to come out in the open and tell the naked truth about all of it!

The Skullduggery Exposed

THIS is not the first time in the nation's history that a lone journalist, adept in the use of language, with the courage of his convictions and a wealth of irrefutable information, has shaped the national destiny.

Back in 1840 William Lloyd Garrison felt the same way about the evil of Slavery, that Pelley felt almost a hundred years later about the evil of Communism.

Garrison's Liberator, by steadily challenging the citadel of ensconced tradition week after week and year after year, finally aroused public opinion to action.

Curiously enough, Pelley's Liberation began to gain to much the same attention.

Pelley began a wholesale publishing of the basic skullduggeries that were everywhere in progress behind the scenes of State.

☞ In other words, "he gave the works away!"

It is an interesting thing now to take up copies of Liberation of five years bygone and read prophetic descriptions of exactly what is happening in the era of the present.

Pelley said the NRA would fail, and told why—and it did!

☞ He said that Roosevelt was fatalistically in the grip of a coterie of scheming overseas politicians, ninety percent of them Jewish, who would use him and his office to bring in Communism through abortive trade-unionism.

Pelley went down the line on the inside record of each New Dealer as he was appointed by the influences behind Roosevelt, and disclosed what each man's tie-ups were, making him the obedient stooge of the clique that was out to loot America via the public treasury and eventually make Communism seem to be the only escape from the economic predicament.

Five years in the past Pelley was writing in Liberation the newspaper headlines of this moment!

With no profanity intended, his writings raised hell!

The Silver Legion

"WHAT can be done about this thing?" demanded people of intelligence who were reading Liberation week upon week and growing convinced that down in North Carolina was being published one journal that told them stark facts ❁ ❁

"We can all of us get together in a nation-wide group," responded Pelley, "and so equip ourselves with a knowledge of Red-Jewish tactics, purposes, and plot-steps, that each in his respective locality shall know instantly how to lead or guide his unlearned fellow citizens when the aroused Christian element of the nation finally takes the form of vigorous vigilantism. In other words, there is a way to frustrate this revolution which the Overseas Gang is planning through its control of highest American officials at the top of our government. To be forewarned is to be prepared."

So to actualize the recommendations he was making weekly through Liberation, its editor founded the nation-wide organization that was called THE SILVER LEGION.

The purpose of THE SILVER LEGION was to enlighten and train leaders who should be competent to act in a time of crisis—binding them together in a unified whole—so that there might be cooperation and cohesion among them throughout the forty-eight States.

To recruit millions of men would take too much time, but if a handful of influential people were recruited in each place, and those people stepped forth and assumed charge of aroused citizens when red-strike situations such as at Warren, Ohio, were precipitating the destruction of citizen life and property, the effect would be the same as though those aroused citizens were tacit members of the LEGION itself.

Such was Pelley's plan and THE SILVER LEGION started.

Within three months it had begun to scour!

Opposition and Persecution

THIS is not the place to give the whole story of THE SILVER LEGION's vicissitudes since its inception on February 18, 1933. Any stranger who wishes to apprise himself of the opposition and persecution which Silver Legionnaires have suffered for daring to uphold the American political and economic structure, can have the detailed story by reading Pelley's autobiography, The Door to Revelation.

Sufficient to state here briefly that Jewish New-Dealers in the Congress, infuriated at having their machinations mercilessly exposed—particularly by one man—started a mighty ball rolling to smear Pelley from the scene.

A congressional committee was hatched up, affecting to investigate "un-American" activities. Actually it was made up of communistic stooges and its purpose was to probe and smash THE SILVER LEGION, secure a list of its members and send agents to terrorize them individually, then work as it could to land Pelley in jail.

At the same time, groups of New York radicals got a private purse together and hired ignorant North Carolina lawyers to go after Pelley's publishing concern and put it out of business. Acting in cahoots with a North Carolina political ring, charges of having violated the State's Blue-Sky law against unregistered stock-selling were brought against Pelley.

The attack came on several fronts at once.

The puzzled public accepted that Pelley didn't have a chance. The most powerful interests in the nation were all out to "get" him—interests equipped with millions of dollars and heavy federal influence backing them. Pelley had only the slender resources from his Silver Legionnaires, with no political pull whatsoever, and every hoodwinked newspaper editor in the country started yowling for his blood.

Because Pelley had shown irrefutably that international organizations of Jews were sponsoring, financing, and fanagging Communism, the newspapers besmirched Pelley as a would-be Nazi, a Jew-baiter, a promoter of racial and religious hatreds, an agent of Hitler purposing to overthrow "democracy" ❁ ❁ The full force of utterly bedeviled public opinion was massed against him.

The radio was insolently denied him.

For a period of seventeen weeks his publication was suppressed.

❁ It was secret skullduggery and persecution at its worst. And for a full seven months Pelley fought for his liberty—fought through most of those months mainly for his case to be brought to trial.

When his case finally was brought to trial, it was proven that he had never sold a dollar's worth of stock in North Carolina—in violation of the Blue-Sky Law or any other law—and the only thing the federal or local ring "had on him" was a silly technical failure to register one of his corporations with the State authorities for the privilege of doing business in North Carolina and bringing thousands of outside dollars annually into the State.

The Judge excused Pelley with a technical fine for this innocent oversight and he went back to his publishing business and his SILVER LEGION.

Suddenly every atheistic Jew and conniving radical in the country began to acquire the superstitious jitters regarding Pelley. How did he dare go to such lengths in his journalistic audacity, and how could he emerge unscathed with such colossal forces arrayed to smash him?

All they could do was to launch a campaign of criminal misrepresentation of his Movement in districts where he had no voice and could not answer back.

They tried to inflame the Catholics against him, by declaring that THE SILVER LEGION was a repetition of the KKK, whereas THE SILVER LEGION's ranks contained hundreds of good Catholics who were among Pelley's most loyal supporters ❁ ❁

❁ They screeched—as Dickstein still persists in screeching in the Congress—that Pelley was an American agent for Hitler, that Hitler was supplying him with thousands of dollars, whereas Pelley's income tax report shows exactly how much money he has had to use and precisely where it came from.

❁ Finally the campaign of defamation became so preposterous that the Law of Diminishing Returns set in.

People began to laugh at the hysterias of Pelley's antagonists and decide that no man could possibly be so bad as America's Reds were painting him.

Reaction began .

Pelley's following began to grow important.

For five years this battle has been going on, almost a One-Man War against all the forces of spoliation in the country. ❁ Acknowledgment is now coming that Pelley is winning it!

Hewing to the Line

AND yet down in Asheville, N. C., Pelley himself goes about his weekly publishing business like any country editor anywhere in the nation. Outside his voluminous mail, and slipping from town occasionally to address outstanding meetings of patriots or confer with business groups who are coming awake at last, he lives the daily life of an entirely inconsequential citizen.

He knows the value of timing.

Week after week he hammers away in his publication Liberation, catastrophically exposing whatever move the Great Radicals make to bring the nation within their final grasp, issuing an exhaustless flood of books and pamphlets that have their equal nowhere in the nation.

He sees this great country gradually coming awake to this communistic menace. He sees the forces of vigilantism tightening. He sees Roosevelt and his clique of New-Deal Jews being daily discredited and taking the toboggan to oblivion. He knows that a vast economic crisis is ahead, as the aftermath of NRA havoc visits its rigors on the nation. But he rests confident that he knows how to instruct his men what to do at its arrival, precisely as he has called the shots unerringly on the Overseas Gang to the moment.

You Should Read Liberation

IF YOU have never seen Liberation, if you are not a weekly reader of this history-making little publication, you should get yourself upon its mailing list at once. It is the one absolutely Free Press which the American Gentile public possesses in this strife-torn country, at the moment.

Week after week Pelley has research editors comb the entire Kept Press of this nation for the vital and outstanding news of just how the real fight is going with the atheistic Jewish Radicals throughout the States. He prints this news audaciously, the only compilation of its kind from Maine to California ❁ ❁

All over the forty-eight States his own supporters and Silver Legionnaires act as volunteer listening-posts and help supply Liberation with the type of news that the Kept Press does not print.

Sometimes Pelley uses an entire issue of his paper to publish his own red-hot castigations of this overseas plot that is irrefutably going hay-wire. A great surgeon in Texas epitomized Pelley's literary style by his comment in a recent letter thus: "You wield the keenest pen of any writer I have ever followed" ❁ ❁

But Liberation is not the only item issued by Pelley under the trade name of Pelley Publishers.

"No More Hunger"

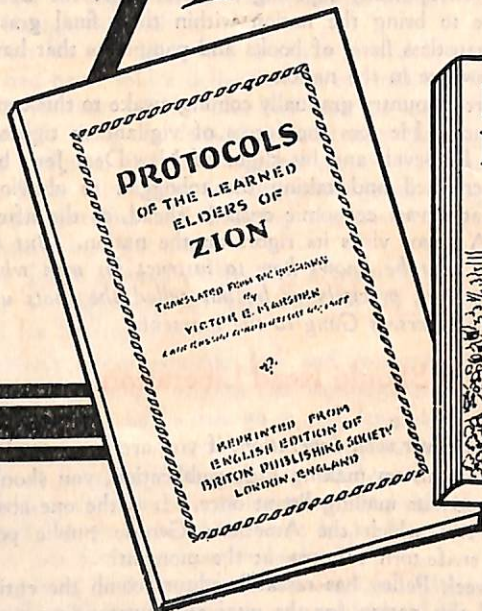

WHEN people demanded of Pelley, "How is the nation going to meet its cataclysmic national debt?" or, "What is to be done about this nightmare of Unemployment?" Pelley sat himself down and in three days wrote a book. In it he described exactly what the constructive Christian people of the United States could do as he saw it, to restore their country to a wholesome economic status almost overnight. He named it No More Hunger.

It was toward the end of 1933 that this book was first published. Printing after printing has been struck off since that date. Tens of thousands of people from Maine to California have cried: "This is the solution!"

Evidently the radicals have thought so as well, because like Pelley's publications, and Pelley's speeches, the censorship has been clapped on tight on all reviews. No word of either Liberation or No More Hunger is permitted to get out to millions of victimized Americans, trembling in their shoes at what may happen next.

No More Hunger is written by a man who has been meeting payrolls all his life, who made an outstanding success of his own life and affairs before he assumed to suggest palliatives for the nation, who has been for thirty years a close student of Money and Economics, who understands human nature and the fullest extent of America's bilking.

The price of this dynamic and revealing little volume is but 50c for the single copy, or 25c in lots of twenty for general distribution ❄️

Many businessmen of large affairs are now requesting all their employees to read No More Hunger as a condition of continuing employment with their firms!

Inside Information of Vital Importance

NATIONS IN LAW

☐ This Two-Volume Work—which took ten years to write—tears into shreds the present notions of man as to what constitutes Law and reassembles the pieces into a structure of Jurisprudence that can withstand any test of Time or Racial Mischief put upon it. ☐ Pelley's treatment of the League of Nations subject alone is worth the price of the two exquisite volumes into which this startling intelligence has been rendered. Same beautiful printing-binding as the book, "Behold Life."

☐ Here are two books which, coming from the pen of the leader of the American Silvershirts, may have an important effect on America's future foreign policy.

WHAT IT IS THAT ROOSEVELT
KNOWS BUT IGNORES

The President Knows

☐ The damning text of this Booklet was taken from the Briefs that were filed in the United States Senate by Chief Pelley's counsel at the time of the litigation of the Silvershirt Legion of America against the LaFollette Civil Liberties Committee, opposing the granting of any more public funds for the continuation of its work in the aiding of John Lewis and his CIO. ☐ This red-hot book builds a skilful case against these Soviet-promoters in our Federal government, and contends that the President is "wise" to it all but now finds himself "in" so far that he could not back out even if he desired.
