Westrick Faces Prosecution Over 'Gift' Car T-H &//۵/46 Nazi Agent Loses

Driver's License

For Falsification

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (C.T.P.S.). Dr. Gerhard Alois Westrick, who lost a foot during the first World War and is now on a Nazi government mission here, today lost his driver's license, registration certificate, and tags for an automobile which it seems he never really owned.

The various documents were re-voked by Motor Vehicle Referee Charles J. Conklin after a hearing in which it was disclosed the Texas Co., big scale oil exporters, actually bought and paid for Dr. Westrick's car.

Faces Prosecution

Dr. Westrick ignored the hear-ing, but evidence of his false state-ments was put in the record, which will be turned over to District At-torney Thomas E. Dewey for study and a decision on possible prosecu-and a decision on possible prosecu-tion. The car, it was established, was bought June 11 last from the Glid-den Buick Corp., of midtown Broadway, and a check for $1. 570.90, drawn on the Central Han-over Bank at the request of the Texas Co., was given in payment. No record of ownership transfer to the Nazi agent if it was given to him as a gift, was filed.

Transfers Car to Wife

٠,

Yet, in the application, it was testified, Westrick said he was the owner of the car—this despite a warning notice printed on the form that false statements there-on are nunichable by a fine of form that false statements there-on are punishable by a fine of $100 or 30 days in jali. Westrick, whose family was packing today to move out of their rented mansion in suburban Scarsdale, transferred ownership of the car to his wife. Motor ve-hicle authorities said a legal opin-ion would be sought to determine nicle authorities said a legal opin-ion would be sought to determine future action on that account in as much as the car apparently is not even owned by Westrick.