Here's the Truth About Winrod

Winrod's Nazism Proved by His Own Words

Rev. Giles Knight of Angelus Temple, where "the Rev." Gerald B. Winrod spoke twice last Sunday, claims that Winrod is not anti-semitic, anti-Catholic and pro-Nazi.

The Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and other progressive and labor organizations maintain that he is. On this page is the proof. It is taken from Winrod's own magazine, The Defender.

The proof was compiled by nine Kansas clergymen who were alarmed at the possibility that an outright Fascist might be elected to the United States Senate from their state this year.

They assembled a brochure containing photostatic reproductions of Winrod's writings stirring up prejudice against religious groups and democratic institutions and his statements in support of Nazism. All of the material printed here is taken from that brochure. Quotations from Winrod himself are in boldface. The ministers' summaries and comments are in lightface, and follow their own words exactly.

Winrod printed a new item making the ridiculous charge that the Protestant Council of Churches distributes a book advocating "Soviet-atheist" doctrines.

Nazi Groups Welcome Winrod

Among the few individuals and organizations who sent telegrams to "the Rev." Gerald B. Winrod welcoming him to Los Angeles was the Militant Christian Patriots of Pasadena.

This is the organization which Henry Allen, Pasadena Nazi, has accused of hiring him to distribute literature against the Jews.

Following its well-known tactics, copied from the German Nazis, the organization in its telegram called all those Communists who opposed Winrod's coming.
