

"From "Total Espionage," by Cart Riess

p. 146 - Re I. G. Farben

It is amazing how much the Poles did discover. They found many ammunition dumps which the Germans had established in churches; they found espionage headquarters in the branches of great industrial plants, like I. G. Farbenindustrie and Siemens-Schuckert.