
N. Y. Court Clears Germany Library Head

T-11 9/20/40
NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (C.T.P. S.).—Dr. Matthias Schmitz, director of the German Library of Information, was absolved today of violating a law requiring registration with the county clerk. Magistrate Charles C. Neutgen held that "however contemptible the defendant may be in other respects," an admission by the German Embassy that the library was an agency of the Nazi government exempted it from the law.
