

FASCIST ORGANIZATIONS-ITALIAN-AMERICAN

From Within the Gates, Nation,
July 27, 1940, pp. 702.

Perhaps the most influential of the Italian-American groups is the Lictor Federation, which swallowed most of the 180 factions of the now defunct Fascist League of America. Other important Italian propaganda agencies are the Benito Alighieri Society, the American-Italian Union, the Italian Historical Society, the Sons of Italy, and the International Confederation of America.
