

A recommendation that Fritz Wiedemann, German consul-general at San Francisco, be charged with conspiracy in the case of a German citizen held by Federal authorities for failing to register with the State Department, has been made by a U. S. commissioner. Wiedemann is shown during a visit to San Francisco three years ago while still Adolf Hitler's personal aid.

PM 7/9/40