

7/23/40
Conference Here to Seek
U. S. Aid for Ukraina

Approximately 1,000 representatives of some 2,300 Ukrainian-American organizations throughout the country are expected to assemble here tomorrow to urge the American Government "to support the aspirations of the Ukrainian people in their native land for an independent and democratic state after the war."

Speakers will include Senators Guffey and Davis of Pennsylvania and Wagner of New York. Honor guests, it was announced, will be Senator Maloney of Connecticut and Representatives Boland Pennsylvania, O'Day of New York and Hart of New Jersey.

Promoters of the conference, be held at the Washington Hotel pointed out that more than a million citizens of the United States and Canada are of Ukrainian birth.