

Contraband Mercury Seized by Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 18—A contraband shipment of 696 flasks of mercury has been seized in a freight car at Tampico. Billed as petroleum and bronze fittings, the mercury was consigned to a customs agent at Manzanillo, Pacific Coast port where Japanese steamers frequently call. The shipment is being held pending investigation.