

Weekend Box Office

Movie (Studio)	Weekend Gross/ Total (millions)	Screens/ Average	Weeks in Release
1. "White Men Can't Jump" (Fox)	$14.7 $14.7	1,923 $7,650	1
2. "Basic Instinct" (TriStar)	$13.2 $34.7	1,770 $7,460	2
3. "Wayne's World" (Paramount)	$5.7 $87.1	1,878 $3,042	7
4. "My Cousin Vinny" (Fox)	$5.3 $25.1	1,506 $3,530	3
5. "Ladybugs" (Paramount)	$5.1 $5.1	1,528 $3,390	1
6. "The Cutting Edge" (MGM/Pathé)	$4.4 $4.4	775 $5,779	1
7. "Fried Green Tomatoes" (Universal)	$2.8 $65.3	1,312 $2,145	14
8. "Lawnmower Man" (New Line)	$2.5 $24.8	1,318 $1,919	4
9. "Beauty and the Beast" (Disney)	$1.7 $125.3	1,157 $1,541	20
10. "American Me" (Universal)	$1.2 $9.1	537 $2,390	3
★ "Ruby" (Triumph)	$614,327 $614,327	764 $804	1

'White Men' Hits From Outside

"White Men Can't Jump," an urban comedy starring Wesley Snipes and Woody Harrelson, leaped to the top of the box-office chart in a single bound, skipping over last week's No. 1 film, "Basic Instinct," in its first weekend in theaters. "Ladybugs," a new comedy with Rodney Dangerfield playing the coach of a girl's soccer team, entered the field in fifth place.

★ "Ruby," moviedom's latest take on people involved in the events surrounding John F. Kennedy's assassination, hit the list in the 17th spot.

—ALEENE MacMINN

SOURCE: Exhibitor Relations Co.